THE PITT TRADITION

Street & Smith's selected the University of Pittsburgh as one of the "20 Greatest College Football Programs of All Time." The list was based on such criteria as national championships, undefeated seasons, bowl games, all-time winning percentage, All-Americans and Heisman Trophy winners.

Some of the greatest players in the history of college and pro football have been Panthers. They are part of a glorious gridiron legacy that grows greater with each passing season.

“A PITT MAN”

“Pittsburgh has always been a special place in my heart.”

Dave Wannstedt has worked in practically every region of the country during his highly accomplished career. But whether he was coaching in Los Angeles, Dallas or Miami, there has truly been only one place he considered home — Pittsburgh.

NEXT DOOR NEIGHBORS: DAVE WANNSTEDT WITH NEW STEELERS COACH MIKE TOMLIN AT THE TEAM'S SHARED PRACTICE FACILITY.

“COACH WANNSTEDT IS A TREMENDOUS PERSON. I BENEFITED SO MUCH FROM HIS EXPERIENCE AND TEACHINGS. HE’S COACHED A LOT OF CORNERBACKS WHO HAVE BEEN PRO BOWL GUYS. ONE OF THE THINGS HE DID WITH ME WHEN HE CAME IN WAS PUT ME IN THEIR SCHEMES. WE ALWAYS TALKED ABOUT WHAT THOSE PRO BOWL CORNERS WERE DOING THAT I COULD PUT INTO MY GAME. IT HELPED ME GET TO WHERE I AM TODAY.”

~ Darrelle Revis, New York Jets 2007 First-Round Draft Pick and Two-Time All Big-East Cornerback at Pitt

“WE WERE IN A STAFF MEETING AND I’M SITTING AT THE FAR END OF THE TABLE — IT WAS THE ’76 YEAR, THE YEAR WE (PITT) WON THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP — AND I THINK MY JOB THAT DAY WAS TO MAKE THE COFFEE. I’M LOOKING AT COACH (JOHN) MAJORS AND SAID TO MYSELF, ‘SOMEDAY, I WILL BE THE HEAD COACH AT THE UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH.’”

"IT HAS BEEN WAY TOO LONG SINCE WE'VE WON THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP HERE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH. NOBODY NEEDS TO TELL ME ABOUT THE TRADITION HERE, ABOUT THE NINE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS BECAUSE I'VE LIVED IT, I'VE EXPERIENCED IT AND I UNDERSTAND IT. IT IS EASY TO SELL SOMETHING YOU ARE PASSIONATE ABOUT."

"I BELIEVE I CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE ON THE FOOTBALL FIELD, BUT JUST AS IMPORTANT, I BELIEVE I CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE AT THE UNIVERSITY AND IN THE COMMUNITY. I THINK ALL THOSE THINGS ARE VITAL AND ALL THOSE THINGS ARE VERY IMPORTANT."

CHAMPIONSHIP-CALIBER

STAFF

Dave Wannstedt has assembled one of the most experienced, talented and passionate coaching staffs in the country.

GREG GATTUSO

Defensive Line

One of Pennsylvania's best-known football figures, Gattuso was a two-time national coach of the year at Duquesne University.

AUBREY HILL

Wide Receivers

Played and coached under Steve Spurrier's "Fun 'n Gun" offense at Florida and helped the Gators to the 1996 national title as an assistant.

DAVID WALKER

Running Backs

Tutored four 1,000-yard rushers this decade and has produced six backs who have played in the NFL.

CHARLIE PARTRIDGE

Special Teams

Coordinator/Linebackers

Pitt's special teams produced ESPN's 2006 "College Football Play of the Year," a 73-yard punt return by Darrelle Revis vs. West Virginia.

MATT CAVANAUGH

Offensive Coordinator/ Quarterbacks

Won a national title at Pitt and three Super Bowl rings in the NFL.

PAUL RHOADS

Defensive

Coordinator/Linebackers

His 2006 defense featured three NFL Draft selections, including first-rounder Darrelle Revis.

PAUL DUNN

Offensive Line

24-year coaching vet and former Pitt lineman who produced four All-Americans in six record-breaking years at Kansas State.

CHRIS BALL

Secondary

20-year veteran who coached the nation's top-ranked pass defense at Alabama in 2004.

BRIAN ANGELICHIO

Tight Ends

Rising young assistant who has drawn praise from Scout.com for his recruiting prowess.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Pitt has won nine national championships — the most of any NCAA Division I-A program in the East and the sixth best ever. Pitt's national champion teams not only ranked as the best in the land in that given year, but in many cases were among the elite teams in college football history.

ALL-TIME NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

MEDIA SPOTLIGHT

When you play football at Pitt, people know it. As one of the country's historic college programs, the Panthers garner plenty of media attention. So it's a frequent sight to see a Pitt player chatting with a newspaper reporter or stepping in front of a television camera after practice or the game.

SPORTSCENTER

M I N D E D

At Pitt, you are more than just a football player. The University of Pittsburgh works to give its student-athletes a complete, well-rounded experience, expanding their horizons in ways they never thought possible. Part of that experience is giving back to the community.

Former Panthers QB Tyler Palko was named the 2006-07 Division I-A Coca-Cola Community All-American for his various charitable endeavors while at Pitt.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

Dave Wannstedt owns not one but two degrees from the University of Pittsburgh. "I know firsthand the high value of a Pitt education," Wannstedt says. "I know Pitt players who have gone on to the NFL. But I also know just as many who have gone on to be successful in business, medicine, law, teaching and broadcasting. An education lasts a lifetime and it is an unquestioned priority for our program."

PETERSEN EVENTS CENTER

Symbolic of a bold new era in the history of the University of Pittsburgh is the construction of the Petersen Events Center, a state-of-the-art convocation center and basketball arena that is located at the peak of the upper campus with a dramatic view of Oakland and the Cathedral of Learning. It is a major hub for campus activities 12 months a year.

HEINZ FIELD

In Heinz Field, the Pitt Panthers have one of the finest football stadiums in the country to call home. Situated just north of Pittsburgh's Point State Park, the horseshoe shaped stadium seats 65,050 people and provides a stunning view of the city's breathtaking skyline and three rivers.

UPMC SPORTS PERFORMANCE COMPLEX

Pitt's practice facility is the finest and most complete facility of its kind in the country. It contains everything a football player could ever need or want to reach his fullest potential!

THIS IS PITT

The University of Pittsburgh campus is a place of delightful contrasts: Unabashedly urban, yet dotted with gardens and trees. Situated on the edge of 456-acre wooded Schenley Park, the campus weaves in and out of an exciting section of city known as Oakland, the city's cultural and medical center.

■ Founded in a log cabin in 1787, the University of Pittsburgh is among the oldest institutions of higher education in the United States. Pitt has more than 225,000 alumni living in all 50 states and territories and 119 foreign countries.

■ Pitt's academic record is outstanding, rating among the leading national and international universities in the United States. Pitt offers 400 distinct degree programs. Its faculty includes many world-renowned scholars, researchers and innovators.

■ In its most recent review, The National Research Council (NRC), the most respected evaluator of academic programs in the United States, has ranked a number of Pitt's programs in the top of their fields. Pitt's Department of Philosophy ranks second nationally and its Department of History and Philosophy of Science, fifth. According to NRC, such University departments as Chemistry, Economics, English, History, Physics, Political Science, Psychology and Physiology are also among the best in their disciplines.

■ Since 1974, the University of Pittsburgh has been a member of the prestigious Association of American Universities, an association which includes the 62 most prominent national research universities in North America.

■ Since 1996, enrollment at Pitt has increased by more than 2,600 students. At the same time, admission has become more selective; 46 percent of Pitt's first-year students graduated in the top 10 percent of their class, compared to 22 percent in 1996.

■ A recent report from the Middle States Commission on Higher Education called Pitt's undergraduate programs "impressive" in both variety and strength. And with a student-to-faculty ratio of 16:1 and more than 60 percent of classes with fewer than 30 students, undergrads at Pitt have the opportunity to interact with world-class faculty.

■ In medicine, the University of Pittsburgh is recognized as having one of the world's leading organ transplant programs; the Joseph M. Katz Graduate School of Business is ranked among the top business programs in the nation; and the School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences offers a highly regarded speech and hearing science program. Similar honors accrue to programs in writing, and music — the program that sponsors the nationally famous Pitt Jazz Seminar.

President Bush, pictured here with Chancellor Mark Nordenberg, visited the University of Pittsburgh in 2002.

"While Pittsburgh used to be called Steel Town, they need to call it Knowledge Town."

PITT STRENGTH

IS PITT PRIDE

Buddy Morris

The road to greatness begins in the “Pitt Iron Works,” also known as the Pitt football weight room. Under the direction of nationally renowned strength coach Buddy Morris, the Iron Works is used 12 months out of the year and features the latest in strength equipment and training methods.

PITTSBURGH

AMERICA'S MOST LIVABLE CITY

Pittsburgh has been rated America's "Most Livable City" by Places Rated Almanac.

AMERICA'S TOP 10 CITIES

1. Pittsburgh, PA
2. San Francisco, CA
3. Seattle, WA
4. Portland, OR
5. Philadelphia, PA

8. San Jose-Sunnyvale, CA
9. Boston, MA
10. Madison, WI

USA Weekend calls the view of the Pittsburgh skyline from Mount Washington one of the two most beautiful sites in America.

A GREAT SPORTS TOWN

Pittsburgh ranks among the best sports towns in America. The Panthers are part of a great city sports family that includes pro franchises in football, baseball and hockey. The Steelers of the NFL, the Pirates of Major League Baseball and the Penguins of the NHL all call Pittsburgh home and, along with the Panthers, are an exciting part of the city's flavor.

OBTAINING MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials for Pitt home games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible due to space limitations and demand. All credential requests should be made online at www.sportssystems.com/pitt.

Media organizations covering Pitt and the visiting school on a regular basis will receive top priority. All other credentials for print media will be issued on the basis of circulation. Only radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a daily sports show or members of the Pittsburgh ISP Sports Network will be considered for credentials.

GAME DAY MEDIA ENTRANCE

Press members must enter Heinz Field with their credentials through the designated entrance on the west side of the stadium, off Allegheny Avenue. If walking from the media parking lot, the most direct route is around the open end of the stadium (Gate A), which faces the river. The media entrance is just past Gate A, directly across from the Carnegie Science Center. After checking in with security, take the elevator up to the fourth floor for access to the press box.

GAME DAY MEDIA WILL CALL

Credentials that cannot be mailed may be obtained on game day at media will call, located at the media entrance on the west side of the stadium off Allegheny Avenue. Media will call opens two hours before kickoff. A photo ID must be shown to receive credentials.

GAME DAY TELEPHONES/WIRELESS SERVICE

The media relations office supplies an adequate number of telephones in the press box for general use by visiting writers. Credential requests should indicate interest in the use of these phones. Personal phone lines at assigned seats can be ordered by contacting the media relations office and obtaining a phone line request form. Orders must be placed at least four days prior to game day. Wireless Internet service is available to media members in the Heinz Field press box.

PHOTOGRAPHY ROOM

There is a photo room easily accessible from the field for covering photographers. Enter the tunnel located closest to the Pitt sideline in the closed (north) end of the stadium.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The postgame press conference for Pitt home games will be held in the media compound, located conveniently off the administrative offices lobby by the press box elevator. Coach Dave Wannstedt and select Pitt players will attend the press conference. Pitt's locker room is closed to the media and the public. Opponent interviews will be held in a room connected to the visitor's locker room.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Coach Wannstedt will conduct his weekly press conferences Mondays, beginning at 11:45 a.m. The conferences will be held at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex. When obliged by the upcoming opponent, a 10-minute telephone hookup with the opposing coach will take place at the beginning of the press conference. Transcripts as well as audio/video archives of Coach Wannstedt's press conferences are available on www.PittsburghPanthers.com.

BIG EAST FOOTBALL TELECONFERENCE

Coach Wannstedt will be available for interviews via a Big East Football Teleconference every Monday from 11:20 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Contact the conference media relations office at (401) 453-0660 for the dial-in number and weekly replays.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

The initial 30 minutes of Pitt football practice, Monday through Thursday, are open to the media for observation. Photographers are also free to shoot practice during this time. The duration of the workout is closed. Media members should contact E.J. Borghetti in advance for practice times and proper clearance. All practices will be held at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex.

WEEKLY INTERVIEWS

All interviews must be arranged through the media relations office at least 24 hours in advance. Please note the following interview opportunities:

COACH WANNSTEDT PRACTICE PRESS BRIEFINGS

Coach Wannstedt will hold a press briefing on the field before each practice on weekdays. Consult the media relations office for exact times.

PLAYER AND ASSISTANT COACH INTERVIEWS

Player and assistant coach interviews will be held before practice at a designated time. The deadline for player interviews during game weeks is Thursday at noon. The media relations office will not release player telephone numbers.

Media Information

Color analyst Bill Fralic (left) and play-by-play man Bill Hillgrove will call all the radio action for Pitt football this year.

PITTSBURGH ISP SPORTS NETWORK

The University of Pittsburgh and its multi-media rights holder, ISP Sports, provide the Panthers with thoroughly comprehensive radio coverage. Pitt football is broadcast on the Pittsburgh ISP Sports Network, presented by First Commonwealth Bank. Game broadcasts air over a loyal network of stations, including flagships 94.5 3WS (WWSW-FM) and Fox Sports Radio 970 (WBGG-AM).

Broadcasts include:

- A two-hour football pregame show, starting with "First and Long" with Pitt athletic director Jeff Long, and 60-minute postgame coverage.
- "Panther Hotline," an hour-long call-in show following postgame coverage.
- A weekly Dave Wannstedt Show on Fox Sports Radio 970, airing live from the Pittsburgh Steak Company (1924 East Carson Street), on Wednesdays from 7:30-8:30 p.m. Coach Wannstedt previews the upcoming game and takes questions from callers listening on many of the same Pittsburgh ISP Sports Network affiliates that carry Pitt game broadcasts.

For the 34th consecutive year, Bill Hillgrove will be the "Voice of the Panthers." Hillgrove's accurate and descriptive style paints the picture for Pitt fans listening to the network. Hillgrove has a long association with the Panthers and Pittsburgh sports scene. Prior to taking over the play-by-play duties, Hillgrove served as the Panthers' color analyst from 1970-73. He has also served as the play-by-play man for Pitt basketball broadcasts since 1969.

A popular and well-known Pittsburgh sports personality, Hillgrove has long been a Panther ambassador of good will. He is a 1962 graduate of Duquesne and has also been the Pittsburgh Steelers' play-by-play announcer since 1995.

This past summer, Hillgrove was named the 2007 recipient of the prestigious Chris Schenkel Award for excellence in college football broadcasting.

Bill Fralic, one of college football's greatest offensive linemen during his Pitt playing career from 1981-84, enters his fourth year as color analyst. Fralic was a three-time first team All-American, earning unanimous status his final two seasons. He became the first offensive lineman to twice finish in the top 10 of the Heisman Trophy balloting, placing sixth in 1984 and eighth in 1983.

The second player taken overall in the 1985 NFL Draft, Fralic went on to an exceptional pro career from 1985-93, playing eight years with the Atlanta Falcons and his final season with the Detroit Lions. He was selected to the Pro Bowl four times.

FSN's "PANTHERS WEEKLY: THE DAVE WANNSTEDT SHOW"

FSN Pittsburgh, the leader in all-sports television programming throughout the tri-state area and beyond, will air "Panthers Weekly: The Dave Wannstedt Show" during the 2007 football season. (Dates and times will be announced in August.)

Hosted by FSN anchor Rob King, the show will feature Coach Wannstedt's insights on a weekly basis and provide an insider's view on everything Pitt.

FSN will also broadcast for the fifth consecutive year "Panthers Weekly." The popular show turns the spotlight on all of Pitt's intercollegiate athletics teams. Panthers Weekly will make its 2007-08 debut following the football season.

FSN's Rob King interviews Dave Wannstedt.

2007 Preview

QUARTERBACKS

WHO'S BACK: Pitt returns three scholarship quarterbacks, but only one with game experience. Junior Bill Stull was the Panthers' backup to the graduated Tyler Palko each of the previous two seasons. Stull has thrown just 10 career passes (completing seven). He played in four games last season and completed 6 of 8 for 69 yards and a touchdown.

Kevan Smith enters his first active collegiate season after redshirting as a true freshman last year. Smith impressed the coaching staff on the scout squad and earned Pitt's Offensive Prep Player of the Year award. Redshirt freshman Dexter Davidson will look to work his way into the quarterback mix after sitting out all of 2006 recovering from knee surgery. Redshirt freshman Steve Malinchak enters his second season as a walk-on QB at Pitt.

WHO'S NEW: Pitt will gain the services of one of the nation's most sought-after quarterback prospects in Pat Bostick. The 2006 Pennsylvania Gatorade Player of the Year, Bostick finished fifth in state history with 7,259 passing yards at Manheim Township High.

NOTABLE: Tyler Palko took every significant snap for Pitt during the last three seasons. He made 35 consecutive starts for the Panthers and finished among the school's all-time leaders in total offense (second, 8,429 yards), passing touchdowns (tied for second, 66) and passing yards (third, 8,343). In addition to his production, Palko's departure also leaves a leadership void. He was voted a team captain each of his final three years.

QUOTABLE: "We may not be working from the foundation of experience that Tyler Palko had, but both Bill Stull and Kevan Smith have a lot of ability and are very smart," offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Matt Cavanaugh said. "The arrival of Pat Bostick will make for an even more competitive situation. We have some talented quarterbacks who will continue to get better and better as their experience level increases."

RUNNING BACKS

WHO'S BACK: All of the major cast members return at running back, including Pitt's leading ground-gainer a year ago in LaRod Stephens-Howling. As Pitt's starting tailback last year, Stephens-Howling rushed for 893 yards and nine touchdowns while averaging five yards per carry. A small and shifty back, the junior has proven capable of making the big play, evidenced by his 70-yard touchdown at Syracuse last season. Stephens-Howling was also frequently utilized as a receiver out of the backfield and averaged 105 all-purpose yards per game, the fourth best in the Big East. Also pushing for carries at tailback will be sophomore Kevin Collier, who totaled 115 yards and two TDs on 33 carries as a true frosh.

Junior Conredge Collins returns as Pitt's starting fullback. More than a blocking back, Collins can be an asset in the running or passing game. Last season he rushed for 115 yards and a touchdown on 29 carries (4.0 avg.), while also adding 20 receptions for 198 yards and three TDs. Sophomore Shane Brooks has moved to fullback after being Stephens-Howling's backup in 2006. Brooks' physical, straight-ahead running style is well suited for the position and helped him rush for 218 yards on 50 attempts (4.4 avg.) last season. A pair of walk-ons, sophomore Chris Bova and redshirt freshman Adam Atiyeh, will provide depth at fullback.

WHO'S NEW: Pitt welcomes one of its deepest and most talented running back classes in recent memory. The Panthers will add three freshman tailbacks, including LeSean McCoy, Shariff Harris and Greg Williams. McCoy joins Pitt via Milford Academy (N.Y.), where he was one of the top prep school prospects in the country. Prior to Milford, McCoy was a high school All-American at Bishop McDevitt in Harrisburg, rushing for more than 2,500 yards his final two seasons.

Additionally, fullback Henry Hynoski joins Pitt after rushing for 7,165 career yards, the sixth highest total in Pennsylvania history, at perennial state power Southern Columbia.

NOTABLE: Noted recruiting site Rivals.com rated Pitt's 2007 running back class No. 8 nationally.

QUOTABLE: "With LaRod and Conredge starting last year we have tested experience coming back and that is a good foundation for your backfield," running backs coach David Walker said. "Looking at our group of backs as a whole, I think we have ability throughout. Some of that ability is untapped so we need to continue to strive for improvement and that will result in on-the-field production."

WIDE RECEIVERS

WHO'S BACK: Pitt's new starting quarterback will have the luxury of throwing to two of the Big East's most productive wideouts in senior Derek Kinder, a 2006 Biletnikoff Award semifinalist, and sophomore Oderick Turner.

Kinder was a first-team All-Big East selection after catching 57 passes for 847 yards (14.9 avg.) and six touchdowns. Labeled a possession receiver at the beginning of the year, Kinder proved he could stretch the field with catches like his 80-yard touchdown at Cincinnati and 78-yard score against Virginia.

Turner led the Big East (tied) with eight touchdown catches in his first active collegiate season and received Freshman All-America honors from Rivals. He totaled 44 receptions for 660 yards (15.0 avg.) overall.

The Panthers boast solid depth at receiver with the return of junior Marcel Pestano and sophomores Cedric McGee and T.J. Porter. Pestano is a speedster who was the team's third-leading receiver last year with 28 catches for 424 yards (15.1 avg.) and two scores. McGee and Porter each saw significant action in reserve roles and appear primed for even bigger contributions this season. Junior walk-on Austin Ransom is back after lettering on special teams. Redshirt frosh walk-on Francis Johns will also work at receiver.

Derek Kinder returns for his senior season as one of the Big East's top receivers.

Offensive tackle Mike McGlynn enters his fourth year as a starter.

WHO'S NEW: Pitt signed three wide receivers in 2007, including Kyle Hubbard, Maurice Williams and Aundre Wright. Williams was a SuperPrep All-American out of Erie (Pa.) Strong Vincent, playing such diverse roles as quarterback, defensive back and receiver. Wright is a highly regarded prep school prospect from Milford Academy (N.Y.). He previously was an All-City performer at Pittsburgh's Perry Traditional Academy. At 6-foot-4, Hubbard was one of Ohio's biggest receiver prospects last year. He compiled nearly 100 receptions for more than 1,400 yards his final two seasons at Cleveland's St. Edward High.

NOTABLE: Pitt has produced a first-team All-Big East wide receiver in eight of the last nine years, including Derek Kinder in 2006. Two of those players were named the winner of the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top wideout, including Larry Fitzgerald (2003) and Antonio Bryant (2000). Pitt is the only school to produce two winners of the Biletnikoff.

QUOTABLE: "In contrast to last season when we were very young and untested, this year we have a receiver group with a lot of depth and experience," receivers coach Aubrey Hill said. "We have kids who have made a lot of big plays and have helped this offense be productive. We want to see that same type of production — and more — this year and I believe we are capable of that."

TIGHT ENDS

WHO'S BACK: Tight end might be Pitt's deepest position despite the loss of 2006 starter Steve Buches to graduation. Three talented and experienced players figure to play prominent roles for Pitt's offense this year, including sophomores Nate Byham and John Pelusi and senior Darrell Strong.

Strong was Pitt's No. 2 tight end for most of last year and had 15 receptions for 171 yards (11.4 avg.) and three touchdowns. Byham joined Pitt as a highly regarded recruit and played in 11 games as a true freshman, catching two passes for 34 yards and a TD.

Pelusi lettered as a true frosh in 2005 but an offseason knee injury pushed him to the sidelines for all of the 2006 campaign. He came back with an impressive spring and is ready to vie for the starting nod. Additional depth at tight end will come from sophomore walk-on Dustin Walters.

WHO'S NEW: Heading into 2007 training camp, none of Pitt's newcomers are projected as tight ends.

NOTABLE: Pitt's primary tight ends — Buches, Strong and Byham — accounted for 43 catches for 507 yards and eight touchdowns last year.

QUOTABLE: "We have a nice luxury at tight end with three veteran players who all have significant game experience," tight ends coach Brian Angelichio said. "All three are going to compete for significant playing time and each player brings their own strengths and talents that can help us win football games."

OFFENSIVE LINE

WHO'S BACK: The Panthers boast an offensive line that has the potential to be one of its strongest editions in recent seasons.

The lone vacancy on the offensive front is at center. Senior Chris Vangas, a three-year letterman, and sophomore John Bachman will be the leading candidates to fill the void. Redshirt freshman Scott Corson will compete at center as well.

Providing depth and competition at tackle will be sophomore Jason Pinkston and junior Chase Clowser. Pinkston joined Pitt as a highly touted defensive line prospect last year but switched to offense in midseason and displayed intriguing potential. Clowser lettered each of the last two seasons. Junior Frank Kochin is also in the tackle mix.

Pushing for time at guard will be junior Dominic Williams, a chief reserve each of the last two years, and sophomore John Brown. Additional depth will come from senior Kevin Cimador and redshirt frosh Alex Karabin.

WHO'S NEW: Five freshmen offensive linemen will join Pitt in the fall, each hailing from the state of Pennsylvania. Chris Jacobson was one of the most coveted offensive line prospects in the state and nationally. A product of nearby Keystone Oaks High, Jacobson was named to numerous All-America squads. John Fieger (Upper Perkiomen), Greg Gaskins (William Penn) and Dan Matha (Erie McDowell) were all first-team all-state performers. Jordan Gibbs (Penn Manor) was a two-time all-star selection in the highly regarded Lancaster-Lebanon League.

NOTABLE: Mike McGlynn has made 31 consecutive starts at right tackle, the most starting assignments of any member of this year's team.

QUOTABLE: "We had some veteran players during the spring miss time due to injuries," offensive line coach Paul Dunn said. "If there is a silver lining, it's that younger players had to step up and take more practice repetitions. You hope that benefits our line in terms of developing quality depth. We have good experience returning with four starters. We need to build depth behind those starters and strive for consistency each and every game."

2007 Preview

Cornerback Kennard Cox will help lead Pitt's secondary.

THE DEFENSE

DEFENSIVE LINE

WHO'S BACK: Senior end Joe Clermond was Pitt's most productive defensive lineman last year, leading the Big East with 16.5 tackles for losses. Clermond earned second-team all-conference and could be poised for a national-caliber year in 2007. Clermond will man the left defensive end spot. Depth will come from redshirt freshman Tyler Tkach and true frosh Justin Hargrove.

Competition for the starting assignment at right end will revolve around senior Chris McKillop and sophomore Doug Fulmer. Both players had promising seasons cut short due to injuries last year. Fulmer impressed as a starter in September before suffering an ankle fracture in the year's fourth game. McKillop stepped up in his place to start six games until a knee injury ended his year. McKillop made a successful return for spring drills. Fulmer, though, suffered another setback with a knee injury and may not be ready for action until September. In his absence, redshirt freshman Greg Romeus could emerge as a prominent reserve role at right end.

Both starters are back on the interior front, including junior nose tackle Rashaad Duncan and junior defensive tackle Gus Mustakas. At the nose, Duncan will be pushed by sophomore Ernest "Mick" Williams, a promising prospect who was hindered during the 2006 season by a shoulder injury. Competition at tackle will come from sophomore letterman John Malecki, sophomore Craig Bokor (an offensive guard last season) and redshirt freshman Jared Martin, who could also see time at the nose.

WHO'S NEW: Pitt will receive an influx of four newcomers to the defensive front. Junior-college transfer Tommie Duhart could make immediate contributions at tackle. A Florida native, Duhart was one of the nation's top JUCO performers at Coffeyville (Ks.) Community College last season. The Panthers also added three freshmen defensive ends, including prep All-American Tony Tucker, who was one of the most heavily recruited prospects in the Washington D.C. area, Myles Caragein, an all-state pick at nearby Keystone Oaks High, and Jabaal Sheard, a speedy prospect out of Hollywood Hills, Fla.

NOTABLE: Pitt's front four accounted for 17 of the team's 21 sacks in 2006. Ends Joe Clermond and Chris McKillop shared the team lead with 5.5 sacks each.

QUOTABLE: "We are on our way to becoming a veteran defensive front," defensive line coach Greg Gattuso said. "As our players have gained experience and knowledge, their mentality as a group has become more aggressive. We are getting up the field and that showed during the spring. Our age, technique and attitude have made good advancements and we're looking forward to that being on display this fall."

LINEBACKERS

WHO'S BACK: The linebacker corps will need significant retooling with the loss of three starters, including All-American H.B. Blades in the middle and strongside linebacker Clint Session.

Junior Scott McKillop lettered as Blades' backup each of the last two years and is poised to take over the starting role. Also vying for time will be sophomore letterman Steve Dell and a pair of redshirt freshmen, Dan Loheyde and Greg Webster. Redshirt frosh walk-on Miguel Peña also will work at the Mike.

Eyeing the starting Sam linebacker assignment will be junior Adam Gunn, who distinguished himself on special teams the last two years. He will be pushed by Nate Nix, who redshirted as a true freshman in 2006.

The competition at Will linebacker will revolve around senior Jemeel Brady and sophomores Shane Murray and Dorin Dickerson. Brady and Murray are converted safeties, while the athletic Dickerson moved to linebacker after lettering as a receiver last season. Sophomore walk-on Brian Kaiser will provide depth.

WHO'S NEW: Freshman Brandon Lindsey was one of the nation's top linebacker prospects following a decorated career at Aliquippa High, a traditional Western Pennsylvania pipeline for the Panthers. Lindsey will be joined by fellow frosh Max Gruder, an all-state performer at North Carolina's Charlotte Country Day School, and Tristan Roberts, a two-way standout who excelled on the eastern side of the Keystone State at Pennridge High.

NOTABLE: Defensive coordinator Paul Rhoads, who coached Pitt's secondary the last seven seasons, will now oversee the linebackers.

QUOTABLE: "Obviously we have a very inexperienced group of linebackers," defensive coordinator and linebackers coach Paul Rhoads said. "While youthful, the group is very serious and intent on learning their positions and performing efficiently. What they lack in playing time I would say they make up for it with work ethic and desire."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

WHO'S BACK: At boundary cornerback, senior Kennard Cox returns after starting every game a year ago. Cox tied for the team lead with seven pass breakups. He will be pushed by sophomore Jovani Chappel, who saw spot duty as a true frosh, and senior Lowell Robinson, a standout kick returner.

2007 Preview

Kick returner Lowell Robinson averaged nearly 28 yards per kick return to top the Big East and rank ninth nationally.

The starting field corner position is vacant with the departure of All-Big East performer Darrelle Revis, who left for the NFL after his junior season. An early favorite to step up and seize Revis' vacant spot is sophomore Aaron Berry, who lettered as a reserve in 2006. Berry will contend with freshman Aaron Smith and redshirt freshman Ricky Gary.

Junior Eric Thatcher impressed as the starting free safety in last year's opening five games until an ankle fracture ended his season. He returns for 2007 ready to resume his prominent role in the secondary. Providing backup duty to Thatcher will be sophomore Irvan Brown.

Senior Mike Phillips has played every position in the secondary during his career and moved into the starting free safety role last season after Thatcher's injury. Phillips will look to take over as the starting strong safety this year, a position he held in 2005 before a season-ending ankle injury in the year's third game. Sophomore Elijah Fields cut his teeth on special teams a year ago and could be a factor at the strong spot this season. A pair of walk-ons, sophomore special teams letterman Mike Toerper and junior Shawn Besong, are also in the mix.

WHO'S NEW: Three freshman defensive backs join Pitt's secondary in 2007, including a homegrown product and two Florida imports. Dom DeCicco was an all-state performer at nearby Thomas Jefferson High. Sunshine state native Sherod Murdock was an All-Florida honoree, while fellow Floridian Buddy Jackson was discovered at Pitt's summer football camp after clocking a 4.31 40-yard dash.

NOTABLE: Darrelle Revis was a first-round selection of the New York Jets in April's NFL Draft. Revis is the sixth Pitt defensive back in the last eight years to get drafted.

QUOTABLE: "We have an exceptionally competitive group in the secondary and they seem to thrive on working hard," defensive backs coach Chris Ball said. "I think Darrelle Revis had a big effect on them. They want to maintain the high level of play and competitiveness that Darrelle always played with. We have a lot of work to do but I'm excited about the progress we have made in the secondary."

THE SPECIALISTS

WHO'S BACK: Junior Conor Lee is coming off a strong 2006 season, his first as Pitt's starting placekicker. Lee led the Panthers in scoring with 83 points, connecting on an impressive 85.7% of his field goals (12 of 14) and each of his 47 extra-point attempts. He could emerge as an All-Big East candidate this year. Competing to be Lee's backup will be three walk-on specialists: junior Cody Sawhill, sophomore Lucas Stone and redshirt frosh Dan Hutchins.

With the graduation of All-Big East performer Adam Graessle, the Panthers will need to find a new punter and the leading candidate is junior Dave Brytus, a transfer from Purdue who sat out last season under NCAA guidelines. Brytus averaged nearly 40 yards per punt for the Boilermakers from 2004-05. Stone will also get a look at punter. In his lone appearance last year, he punted three times for 104 yards (34.7 avg.) at South Florida.

Junior Mark Estermyer helps solidify the kicking game as Pitt's long snapper for punts, a role he has held each of the last two years. Senior Mike McGlynn, the Panthers' starting right tackle, has handled snaps for field goals the last three seasons.

Pitt's kick return game ranked tops in the Big East and ninth in the country last season, averaging more than 24 yards per return. Senior Lowell Robinson was the unit's sparkplug, averaging a Big East-best 27.9 yards per return, which ranked ninth nationally. He will be teamed again with sophomore T.J. Porter (22.2 avg.). Both players could also see time returning punts along with sophomore Aaron Berry.

WHO'S NEW: Pitt did not have any specialists in its 2007 scholarship recruiting class. Punter Dave Brytus, however, figures to make his first collegiate appearance since playing for Purdue in the 2005 Sun Bowl, when he earned the bowl's Most Valuable Special Teams honor.

NOTABLE: Conor Lee's 83 points marked the third highest single-season point total by a Pitt player in the last 25 years. Only receiver Larry Fitzgerald (132 in 2003) and kicker Josh Cummings (89 in 2004) compiled higher season totals during that span.

QUOTABLE: "We have a real strength returning in Conor Lee, especially considering his performance as a first-year starting placekicker last year," special teams coordinator Charlie Partridge said. "Another asset that can't be underestimated is Mark Estermyer. He is in his third year as our long snapper and that's a real comfort for our kicking game. We had a nationally ranked return game last season and we believe we have the right personnel to ensure that area remains a strength."

Placekicker Conor Lee paced Pitt in scoring last year with 83 points, the third highest single-season scoring total by a Panther in the last 25 years.

HONORS LISTING AS OF JULY 1

Joe Clermond

2007 Coaching Staff

Dave Wannstedt

HEAD COACH

Coming off two of Pitt's strongest recruiting efforts since the 1980s, Dave Wannstedt is building an exciting new age for the Panthers' football program.

The recruiting success Pitt has enjoyed the last two years has earned national attention. The morning after National Letter of Intent Day this past February, USA TODAY ran a large picture of Dave Wannstedt next to the headline "Pitt Aiming to be Big East Beast."

"Pittsburgh coach Dave Wannstedt gathered a recruiting class Wednesday that could have the Panthers challenging West Virginia, Louisville and Rutgers for Big East supremacy and regaining the heights that made them national champions in 1976," Andy Gardiner wrote.

"Recruiting is selling," Wannstedt likes to say. "And it's easy to sell when you believe in your product. I believe in the University of Pittsburgh and we are dedicated to building a championship program on and off the field at Pitt."

When Wannstedt speaks about the University of Pittsburgh, there is an unmistakable strength of conviction. Perhaps that's why so many top prospects have chosen Pitt for their academic and athletic futures.

Wannstedt is a Pittsburgh guy. He owns not one but two degrees from the University of Pittsburgh. He is a living, breathing example of a Pitt education and Pitt football.

"There might be no other coach in the country who knows the very soil beneath him better than 'Wanny,'" CBS Sportsline.com senior writer Dennis Dodd said. "Wannstedt's blood and sweat literally stain the grass at his alma mater."

The scene outside of Wannstedt's office windows in the Pitt football practice facility provides a view that is uniquely Pittsburgh and totally fitting for the Panthers' head coach.

The immediate view is to the east, where in the foreground the Panthers' lush grass practice fields capture the eye.

Just beyond the green fields sit steel mills, a reminder of the city's industrial heritage and, for decades, the economic lifeblood of the region.

A gaze back to the west and one can soak in Pittsburgh's breathtaking skyline. The skyscrapers now symbolize the "new Pittsburgh," the former steel city that has evolved into a thriving center for corporations, medicine and higher education.

Although he spent most of the last three decades residing outside of Pittsburgh, these views still remain familiar and comforting for Wannstedt.

He, too, once worked during the summers in the mills that inhabited a stretch of land located off Pittsburgh's Second Avenue. Wannstedt would labor along side his father, Frank, and then head to old Pitt Stadium to pump a different kind of iron in the Panthers' weight room in preparation for the upcoming season.

Each of these scenes — the football fields, steel mills and the city — are embedded in Wannstedt. "Pittsburgh never really left me," he said. "It's always been a special place in my heart."

That is why, more than 30 years after captaining the Panthers' 1973 Fiesta Bowl team, Wannstedt was the perfect choice to lead the University of Pittsburgh's football program. He was named Pitt's head coach by Athletic Director Jeff Long on December 23, 2004.

A rugged offensive tackle for the Panthers from 1970-73, Wannstedt returned to his alma mater with three decades of highly accomplished coaching experience on the collegiate level and in the National Football League. His career has produced three championship rings, including a Super Bowl title and two national collegiate championships.

These days, Wannstedt only wears his Pitt 1976 national championship ring. "Our players and prospects should know that I was part of the greatest team Pitt ever had," he said. "I take pride in that."

"The first time I met Dave Wannstedt, I was immediately struck by his pride and passion for the University of Pittsburgh," Long said. "Although Dave's long and successful coaching career has taken him many different places, his love for Pitt has remained. He not only understands our tradition but has also helped build it."

Coaching Staff

"This opportunity is something I have dreamed about since my early coaching days at Pitt," said Wannstedt, who is a native of Baldwin, Pa.

Wannstedt is the 34th head football coach in Pitt history and the ninth graduate of the school to lead the Panthers' football program.

In his 32-year coaching career, he has been a part of 10 bowl teams, six NFL playoff teams, two college national champions (Pittsburgh in 1976 and Miami in 1987) and one Super Bowl champion (Dallas in 1992).

A "Pitt Man" through and through, Wannstedt has served as a bridge to the program's past — the visits by former players and alumni are reaching unprecedented levels — as he is driving the Panthers strongly into the future.

"Dave is a Pitt guy," said Mike Ditka, an All-America end for the Panthers before he went on to a Hall of Fame playing and coaching career in the NFL. "Dave has a commitment to this university. The excitement created since Dave came back probably hasn't happened in, what, 20 years? Dave is the right guy to lead this program. He's a young guy with a lot of enthusiasm and he's really proud to be a Pittsburgh guy."

In 2006, Wannstedt and his wife Jan gave a $250,000 gift to the University of Pittsburgh to endow a football scholarship. "As a high school senior growing up in Baldwin, I was provided with the life-changing opportunity to receive an outstanding education and play major-college football due to a scholarship," Wannstedt said. "We want to be able to help provide those same opportunities for both current and future generations of student-athletes."

Wannstedt's passion and conviction have created a buzz about Pitt football, and not just in Western Pennsylvania. Not content to stay in Pitt's traditional backyard, Wannstedt embarks on what are now annual spring tours of high schools and alumni functions throughout the commonwealth. Meeting and greeting coaches, principals, high school superintendents, Pitt grads and future Pitt grads, the Panther boss has caused quite a stir. That feeling emanates from each of his visits, even outside of the Keystone State.

"The reception we've received has been overwhelming," Wannstedt said of his travels. "I have received nothing but the utmost respect from the coaches, players and administrators at all of the schools that we've visited. It's a tremendous feeling. I'm excited because I'm selling something I believe in — the University of Pittsburgh."

"I think people sense my enthusiasm and hopefully that makes them want to become a part of something special that we are building at Pitt."

Wannstedt rejoined the college ranks after spending the prior 16 years in the NFL. Eleven of those years were as a head coach, including six with the Chicago Bears (1993-98) and five with the Miami Dolphins (2000-04). Including 2005-06, his 16 years of collegiate coaching experience include 11 winning campaigns and a 123-60-4 record.

It all began, though, in Pittsburgh, where first he was a star at Baldwin High and later played a key role in Pitt football's resurgence in the 1970s. "Dave was such a leader," said Jim Gillooly, his high school football coach. "Dave would scramble up the side of the hill on all fours, in the weeds and the brush, to get in shape. He made a big W-A-N-N in the side of the hill. That became part of our drill, the Wannstedt Drill. Even after Dave was gone."

Wannstedt was a three-sport star for Baldwin in football, basketball and track and field. He earned all-state in football and played in the prestigious Big 33 Classic all-star game. Wannstedt captained both the Highlanders' football and basketball squads before graduating in 1970.

Earning a scholarship to the University of Pittsburgh, he played on the freshman team during the '70 season (freshmen were then not eligible for varsity competition) and earned a starting job as just a sophomore.

John Majors took over as head coach at Pitt for Wannstedt's senior year and led the team to a 6-4-1 regular season and Fiesta Bowl berth. The '73 campaign was the launching pad for Pitt's juggernaut success the rest of the decade that included a 55-15-1 mark (.782), a national championship and five bowls over the next six years. Wannstedt was one of the '73 team's unsung heroes, providing tough blocking from his left tackle spot. His efforts helped a young back named Tony Dorsett rush for 1,686 yards.

Although he was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the 1974 draft, a neck injury cut short Wannstedt's pro aspirations. He returned to Pitt and started his coaching career as a graduate assistant under Majors in 1975 and 1976.

"I knew he had big things ahead of him," Majors said. "You could see it and sense it. He was self-motivated and tough. He was fierce, and everyone around him respected him. He did things the right way, with hard work and dedication. I never had to worry about him. I also saw other players watching how he conducted himself and gravitating to him. That's why he is a great football coach — people see how much the game means to him, how hard he works."

When Majors departed following the undefeated '76 national title season, Wannstedt served under

Jackie Sherrill at Pitt in 1977 and 1978, coaching receivers and special teams. His four years on the Panthers' staff witnessed three Top 15 national rankings, a combined 37-10-1 record (.781) and bowl invites each season. "You knew he had the talent to be a coach," Sherrill said. "Just the way he handled himself, the confidence he had, the way he handled other players."

The talent evident at Pitt launched Wannstedt into a coaching career that took him from his hometown to destinations all over the country, including a pair of NFL head coaching jobs.

During Wannstedt's head coaching tenure with the Dolphins, Miami was one of just three NFL teams from 2000-03 to record nine or more victories each year. The Dolphins' 41-23 mark during that span tied for the club's best four-year record in nearly 20 seasons. Miami captured the AFC East Division championship in 2000 with an 11-5 record. The Dolphins' defense that season ranked third in the NFL in points allowed (a franchise-low 226 points) and led the league with 28 interceptions. He joined the Dolphins in 1999 as assistant head coach under Jimmy Johnson.

Johnson, now an NFL analyst with FOX, and Wannstedt first teamed up together at Pitt. (Johnson was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator under Sherrill before moving on as head coach at Oklahoma State.) The pair became fast friends at Pittsburgh and Johnson ultimately would tap Wannstedt as a top lieutenant at four stops, including Oklahoma State, the University of Miami, the Dallas Cowboys and with the Dolphins.

Wannstedt concluded his Chicago Bears tenure as the third-winningest coach in the franchise's history with 41 victories. In 1994 he was named the NFC Coach of the Year by UPI and Football News after directing Chicago back to the playoffs following a three-year hiatus. Wannstedt additionally was among the top three finishers for NFL Coach of the Year honors that season by The Associated Press, Pro Football Writers, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest. The Bears were the NFL's least-penalized team for two consecutive seasons (1994-95) under his watch.

From 1989-92, Wannstedt was part of a dramatic revitalization of the Dallas Cowboys as defensive coordinator and, in his final season, assistant head coach. His tenure witnessed Dallas' transformation from a 1-15 team to Super Bowl champions in just three years. Wannstedt's 1992 defense was the NFL's youngest but went on to lead the league in total defense, allowing just 245.7 yards per game. The '92 season was punctuated with the Cowboys' 52-17 demolition of Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVII as his defense forced nine turnovers. In 1990, Wannstedt's role in Dallas' revival earned him NFL Assistant Coach of the Year honors.

Prior to Dallas, Wannstedt spent three years as the defensive coordinator of the Miami Hurricanes. From 1986-88, Miami went 34-2 (.944) and won the 1987 national championship with a 12-0 record. During his tenure, the Hurricanes held opponents to just 2.2 yards per rush, gave up only 10.9 points per game and averaged 48 sacks per year. Wannstedt's defenses produced 11 NFL draft selections, including five taken in the initial two rounds.

Wannstedt's other collegiate stops included Southern California (1983-85) and Oklahoma State (1979-82). As defensive line coach at USC, he helped the Trojans capture the 1984 Pacific-10 championship and a subsequent 20-17 win over Ohio State in the Rose Bowl. Wannstedt was also the defensive line coach at Oklahoma State his initial three years before elevating to defensive coordinator in 1982.

Wannstedt is a 1974 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh. He also earned his master's from Pitt in 1976. The Pitt Letter Club in 1999 named him an Awardee of Distinction for his professional and personal accomplishments following his graduation from the university. In 1990 Wannstedt was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame, becoming the youngest person to receive the honor.

Wannstedt and his wife Jan have two daughters, Keri and Jami. Keri is married to Mike Drew.

The Word on Wannstedt

"Coach Wannstedt is a tremendous person. I benefited so much from his experience and teachings. He's coached a lot of cornerbacks who have been Pro Bowl guys. One of the things he did with me when he came in was put me in their schemes. We always talked about what those Pro Bowl corners were doing that I could put into my game. It helped me get to where I am today."

— Darrelle Revis, New York Jets 2007 First-Round Draft Pick and Two-Time All-Big East Cornerback at Pitt

"Dave Wannstedt is the right guy for the right job at absolutely the right time. Pitt is on the cusp of becoming a perennial Top 10 team. All the needed state-of-the-art facilities are in place and Dave is the element that will take the program to another level. Dave is one of us. He doesn't need to be sold on Pitt. He's coached in college. He's coached in the pros. He's won championships on both levels. And he's from Western Pennsylvania! What more could you want?"

— Mark May, ESPN College Football Analyst and 1980 Pitt Outland Trophy Winner and All-American

"I've known Dave Wannstedt for nearly 30 years. We've coached all over the country together. We've won Super Bowls and national championships together. I can tell you this — Dave knows what it takes to win and he knows what it takes to win at Pitt. His passion and coaching abilities will make big things happen there."

— Jimmy Johnson, FOX Analyst and Former NFL and College Head Coach

"Dave is a Pitt guy. Dave has a commitment to this university. The excitement created since Dave came back probably hasn't happened in, what, 20 years? Dave is the right guy to lead this program. He's a young guy with a lot of enthusiasm and he's really proud to be a Pittsburgh guy."

— Mike Ditka, Pro and College Football Hall of Famer and 1960 Pitt All-American

"Known as a relentless recruiter in the '80s at Pitt, Oklahoma State, USC and Miami, Wannstedt has picked up right where he left off."

— Stewart Mandel, Sports Illustrated

"Pittsburgh has the right guy. There might be no other coach in the country who knows the very soil beneath him better than 'Wanny.' Wannstedt's blood and sweat literally stain the grass at his alma mater."

— CBS Sportsline.com Senior Writer Dennis Dodd

"His Pittsburgh background is very important in that part of the world. In some places, it doesn't matter where you're from, but there it does. People there have a religious devotion to football, and it's important to have (someone) with a high pedigree. Dave has it. I think it is a heck of a match, Pitt and Dave Wannstedt."

— ESPN Analyst and Former Alabama Head Coach Bill Curry

"I knew he had big things ahead of him. You could see it and sense it. He was self-motivated and tough. He was fierce, and everyone around him respected him. He did things the right way, with hard work and dedication. I never had to worry about him. I also saw other players watching how he conducted himself and gravitating to him. That's why he is a great football coach — people see how much the game means to him, how hard he works."

— Former Pitt Head Coach John Majors

"I've always liked Dave Wannstedt. He has a great feel for the game. I think Pitt got itself one heck of a football coach. He has a great ability to communicate with players and has a great understanding of the game. For young men to have an opportunity to play under him, I think it will be very special. He comes in with instant credibility. I think he's great for the city."

— Former Pittsburgh Steelers Head Coach Bill Cowher

"Dave understands Pittsburgh and he understands the players you have to recruit. He's going to have a great deal of influence bringing a lot of those types of players back in the program. The confidence, his work ethic and being from Pittsburgh, that gives him all the tools to be successful."

— Former Pitt Head Coach Jackie Sherrill

BALTIMORE, 1999-2004, offensive coordinator.

COLLEGE

PITTSBURGH, 1993, tight ends; 2005-present, offensive coordinator & quarterbacks.

MATT CAVANAUGH who ranks among the most effective and efficient quarterbacks in Pitt history, is in his third year as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Panthers.

In its 2007 college football annual, The Sporting News named Cavanaugh the top offensive coordinator in the Big East — and for good reason. Pitt improved in every significant offensive category last year under Cavanaugh's guidance. The Panthers ranked among the nation's top 20 in three different major offensive categories, including pass efficiency (third, 166.79 rating), scoring (14th, 31.75 points per game) and passing (20th, 249.25 yards per game).

Pitt's scoring average of nearly 32 points per game was its highest in 25 years. Only the Panthers' 1981 edition, which averaged 32.1 points under quarterback Dan Marino, scored at a higher clip during the last quarter century.

Individually, quarterback Tyler Palko was a major beneficiary of Cavanaugh's guidance. Palko topped the Big East and ranked fourth in the country in pass efficiency (163.25). He finished his career ranked second all-time at Pitt in total offense (8,429) and touchdown passes (tied with 66) and additionally finished third in school annals in career passing yards (8,343).

Cavanaugh has renewed ties with Dave Wannstedt for the third time. Wannstedt was an assistant on the Pitt staff during the final three years of Cavanaugh's sparkling collegiate career from 1974-77. The pair also worked together in the NFL when Wannstedt was the head coach of the Chicago Bears and Cavanaugh his offensive coordinator.

Cavanaugh will forever be remembered in Panther lore for quarterbacking Pitt to the 1976 national championship. He capped that magical season with an MVP performance in the Sugar Bowl, leading Pittsburgh to a 27-3 demolition of Georgia. Cavanaugh scored the first touchdown of the game and the celebration of that score became a Sports Illustrated cover (Jan. 10, 1977), which is still displayed at several locales on campus.

His effective blend of passing and running made him an All-American in 1977 and his 3,378 career passing yards still rank 13th in Pitt annals.

He returned to Pittsburgh in 2005 with an impressive resume as a player and coach on both the collegiate and professional levels. In addition to his collegiate championship, Cavanaugh earned three Super Bowl rings, including two as a player (with the San Francisco 49ers in 1984 and the New York Giants in 1990) and one as a coach (Baltimore Ravens in 2000).

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, and graduate of Chaney High, Cavanaugh spent 14 years as a quarterback in the National Football League. A second-round selection of New England in 1978, he spent five seasons (1978-82) with the Patriots before moving on to stints with the San Francisco 49ers (1983-85), Philadelphia Eagles (1986-89) and New York Giants (1990-91).

Cavanaugh began his coaching career at Pitt, where he served as tight ends coach for John Majors in 1993. He then moved back to the professional ranks, serving as quarterbacks coach for the Arizona Cardinals from 1994-95 and at San Francisco in 1996.

From 1997-98, Cavanaugh was offensive coordinator for Chicago, serving under Wannstedt, who was the Bears' head coach. He then was the offensive coordinator at Baltimore (1999-2004), where during the Ravens' Super Bowl season he orchestrated a rushing attack that produced a franchise-record 2,199 yards.

Cavanaugh earned his bachelor's degree from Pitt in administration of justice.

Paul Rhoads

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS

PITT

Coaching Staff

PAUL RHOADS enters his eighth season as Pitt's defensive coordinator. After coaching the secondary each of the last seven years, Rhoads will change his positional focus this season to the Panthers' linebackers.

Under his direction, Pitt has been regularly listed among the nation's leaders in various defensive categories. His track record of success led The Sporting News to name him the Big East's best defensive coordinator in its 2006 college football annual.

Reflective of its aggressive approach, Pitt has scored 10 defensive touchdowns the last three seasons, including four in 2006, one shy of the school record.

At the end of the 2005 season, Pitt ranked second nationally in pass defense, yielding just 152.82 yards per game, and sixth in pass efficiency defense with a 99.36 rating. The Panthers ranked 31st in overall defense, giving up 338 yards per contest.

In 2004, Pitt ranked ninth nationally with 17 interceptions en route to the Big East title and Fiesta Bowl berth.

During Pitt's victorious Insight Bowl season in 2002, the unit played at its highest level since the late 1980s. The Panthers ranked among the nation's top 25 in an impressive seven different categories and allowed their fewest points in a season since 1988 despite playing in a school-record 13 games.

In 2001, the Panthers gave up just 7.4 points and 182.6 yards over a five-game winning streak heading into the Visit Florida Tangerine Bowl. The unit ranked among the nation's top 30 in five different categories at season's end. Additionally, Pitt finished with 38 quarterback sacks. It was the Panthers' highest sack total since the 1987 season.

As secondary coach, Rhoads has had four players taken in the last five NFL drafts, including Bernard "Josh" Lay (2006, New Orleans Saints), Shawntae Spencer (2004, San Francisco 49ers), Torrie Cox (2003, Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and Ramon Walker (2002, Houston Texans). In 2007, Darrelle Revis was the first cornerback taken in the NFL Draft as he was the New York Jets' top pick (14th overall selection).

Under Rhoads' watch, Revis earned first team All-Big East for the second consecutive season in 2006. A semifinalist for the Thorpe Award, he scored three touchdowns, including two on interception returns and one on a thrilling 73-yard punt return against West Virginia. Revis is the first two-time first-team All-Big East defensive back at Pitt since Hank Poteat accomplished the feat in 1998 and 1999.

Rhoads joined the Panthers after serving the prior five seasons (1995-99) at Iowa State, where he was the secondary coach his last four years after coaching the inside linebackers in 1995. Rhoads also assisted with the Cyclones' special teams.

Prior to Iowa State, Rhoads spent three years at Pacific (1992-94), serving as the defensive backs coach and, in his final season, coordinator of the Tigers' pass defense. In 1993, Pacific ranked 20th nationally, allowing just 152 yards passing per game. Rhoads began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Ohio State (1991) and Utah State (1989-90), working with the secondary at both schools.

A 1989 graduate of Missouri Western with a bachelor's degree in economics, Rhoads was a three-year football letterman and the recipient of the Chris Faros Scholarship, honoring the program's top senior student-athlete. He later earned his master's degree from Utah State in 1991.

A native of Ankeny, Iowa, Rhoads was a prep special mention all-state free safety and valedictorian of his high school class.

Entering his fifth season at Pitt, CHARLIE PARTRIDGE has impressed many with his work as a coach and recruiter on behalf of the Panthers.

Partridge enters his second season as Pitt's special teams coordinator. After working with the defensive line the last four seasons, he will change his positional focus to the linebackers in 2007.

From a special teams standpoint, Pitt led the Big East in net punting (37.54 avg.) and kickoff returns (24.14 yards per return) last season. Punter Adam Graessle was selected All-Big East and also was invited to February's NFL Combine. Lowell Robinson, a senior on this year's team, was one of the nation's top kick returners in 2006, averaging a robust 27.9 yards per return to rank first in the Big East and ninth nationally.

ESPN's 2006 College Football "Play of the Year" was actually a Pitt special teams gem — Darrelle Revis' 73-yard punt return for a touchdown against West Virginia. Revis was a No. 1 draft choice of the New York Jets in April, not only for his skills as a cornerback but also as a dynamic special teams performer. "I love special teams," Revis told a New York media gathering. "I have to credit my special teams coach, Charlie Partridge. He put me back there and let me help the team. Even if it was on punt block, I just tried to help the team any way I could."

Partridge was elevated to special teams coordinator following the 2005 season, when under his watch Pitt had four returns for touchdowns in the kicking game, including two kickoffs, a punt and a blocked field goal. The last time the Panthers returned both a kickoff and punt for a TD in the same season was 1977.

One of Partridge's former protégés, defensive end Joe Clermond, is coming off the finest season of his career. Clermond earned All-Big East after leading the conference with 16.5 tackles for losses last year and enters 2007 as one of the country's top defensive ends.

A native of Plantation, Fla., Partridge's primary recruiting focus has been in his home state. Those ties have paid off as the Panthers have landed 21 players from the talent-rich Sunshine State the last four years.

Prior to Pitt, Partridge served four seasons (1998-2001) at Iowa State in administrative and coaching roles. He was a defensive graduate assistant in 1998-99, working with the outside linebackers. Following the 1999 season he earned a full-time appointment as the program's director of football operations. Partridge and Paul Rhoads worked together at ISU during the 1998 and 1999 seasons before Rhoads departed for Pittsburgh.

In 2002 Partridge was hired by Eastern Illinois University as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator. The Panthers advanced to the NCAA I-AA playoffs that year and shared the Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) championship with an 8-4 record. Two of the Panthers' losses came to I-A schools Hawaii and Kansas State.

An outstanding player himself, Partridge was an NSCA All-America defensive lineman for Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa. A team captain and three-year starter for the Bulldogs, Partridge's collegiate coaching career began at his alma mater, as he was a Drake graduate assistant during the 1996 and 1997 seasons. In this capacity, he coached the running backs — producing a pair of 1,000-yard rushers each season — and worked as a strength and conditioning coach.

Partridge earned his bachelor's degree from Drake in secondary education in 1995 and master's degree in education from Iowa State in 2002.

Coaching Staff

After being a highly valuable member of Pitt's coaching staff as an offensive assistant last year, BRIAN ANGELICHIO was promoted to full-time assistant coach this past offseason by Dave Wannstedt.

Angelichio will coach the Panthers' tight ends, which he also did in his graduate assistant post last season. Under his direction, Pitt's three tight ends — Steve Buches, Darrell Strong and Nate Byham — accounted for 43 catches for 507 yards and eight touchdowns last year.

Angelichio joined Pitt in 2006 as a highly seasoned football coach, serving the prior 10 seasons at Ithaca College (1996-2005).

Named Ithaca's offensive coordinator in 2000, Angelichio molded a highly productive unit that set or tied 30 team and individual records over his final five seasons. The Bombers averaged nearly 40 points per game in 2005 to rank 18th nationally on the NCAA Division III level.

Angelichio oversaw the development of seven All-Americans at Ithaca, which advanced to the postseason in seven of his 10 years. His offenses averaged more than 30 points per game in six of his final eight seasons.

Before elevating to his offensive coordinator post, Angelichio coached Ithaca's linebackers (1996-97) and receivers (1998). He oversaw the offensive line from 1999-2005.

In addition to football, Angelichio was a member of Ithaca's baseball staff for nine years, helping the Bombers to the NCAA playoffs each season.

A 1995 graduate of St. Lawrence with a bachelor's in physical education, Angelichio was a member of the Saints' football and baseball teams. He was a three-year starter at outside linebacker and also was a captain and four-year starter on the baseball team. Angelichio spent a season as secondary coach at Brockport (1995) before coming to Ithaca. He earned his master's from Ithaca in 1997.

In 2004 Alabama ranked first nationally in pass defense and second in pass efficiency defense. The Crimson Tide allowed just 113.1 yards per game through the air and limited opposing quarterbacks to a 92.8 rating.

In 2005 the Tide ranked fifth nationally in both pass defense (160.75 yds./game) and pass efficiency defense (97.82 rating). The strong secondary play helped Alabama finish second in the country in total defense, yielding just over 255 yards per game.

Ball coached two first-team All-Southeastern Conference defensive backs the last two years. In 2006 he oversaw the development of All-SEC cornerback Simeon Castille, who led the Tide with six interceptions. The year prior, free safety Roman Harper was a unanimous All-SEC selection and a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, annually presented to the nation's top defensive back. Harper, who became one of only six players at Alabama to compile over 300 career tackles, now plays for the New Orleans Saints.

Prior to Alabama, Ball coached the secondary at Washington State (2000-02). During his three-year tenure, the Cougars intercepted an impressive 60 passes. During the 2001 season, Washington State intercepted a school-record 30 passes.

The standout in that '01 secondary was All-America free safety Lamont Thompson. Now a member of the Tennessee Titans, Thompson finished his collegiate career as Washington State's all-time interceptions leader with 24. His four picks against UCLA in 2001 established a Pac-10 record. Ball also coached cornerback Marcus Trufant, a first-team All-Pac-10 performer and second team All-American in 2002. Trufant is now with the Seattle Seahawks.

Ball was an outstanding player himself on the collegiate level, earning All-America honors as a defensive back at Missouri Western in 1985. He earned his bachelor's degree from Missouri Western in 1986 before embarking on his coaching career.

His additional coaching stops include Idaho State (1999, defensive coordinator/linebackers), Missouri Western (1997-98, defensive coordinator), Western Oregon State (1995-96, assistant head coach/secondary), Coffeyville (Ks.) Community College (1991-94, secondary), Washington State (1989-90, cornerbacks), Akron (1987-88, secondary/special teams) and Northeast Missouri State (1986-87, secondary).

University of Pittsburgh head football coach Dave Wannstedt announced in January the appointment of CHRIS BALL as Pitt's secondary coach. Ball spent the last four seasons coaching the secondary at Alabama.

Outstanding defensive backfields have been a hallmark of Ball's 20-year coaching career. While at Alabama (2003-06) he oversaw the development of some of the finest secondaries and defensive backs in the country.

Paul Dunn

OFFENSIVE LINE

PITT

Coaching Staff

A hard-nosed guard for Pitt's impenetrable offensive fronts of the early 1980s, PAUL DUNN returned to his alma mater as offensive line coach in 2005 and has made indelible imprints on the Panthers' line play.

Pitt ranked 16th nationally last year in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.5 per game). That average is even more impressive considering the Panthers featured a true freshman — Joe Thomas — at left guard due to early season injuries. Thomas ultimately was lauded as one of the nation's top newcomers and earned Freshman All-America honors from Rivals and Scout.com. Additionally, center Joe Villani was invited to play in the Hula Bowl, Pitt's first participant in that annual all-star game since 1991 (defensive back Steve Israel) and the Panthers' first offensive lineman in the game since the legendary Bill Fralic in 1984.

In 2005, Dunn helped Charles Spencer make a successful transition from guard to tackle and earn All-Big East. Spencer was selected in the 2006 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.

Dunn, a 1983 Pitt graduate, owns 24 years of experience coaching offensive lines on the collegiate level. Before returning to Pittsburgh, he most recently served at Kentucky (2003-04) and Kansas State (1998-2002).

At Kentucky, Dunn served as run game coordinator and offensive line coach. During the '03 season, Kentucky produced 24 rushing touchdowns, the third-highest total in school history. Dunn keyed the development of first-team All-Southeastern Conference tackle Antonio Hall, who went on to sign with the Indianapolis Colts.

At Kansas State, Dunn's lines provided the foundation for one of college football's most explosive offenses. During his tenure the Wildcats ranked among the nation's top five in scoring four times, including a national-best 48 points per game in 1998. In 2002, Kansas State averaged 44.8 points to rank second in the country.

Serving as the Wildcats' run game coordinator, Dunn oversaw record-breaking rushing campaigns in 2001 and 2002. In '01, Josh Scobey broke the KSU single-season record with 1,263 rushing yards. A year later, Darren Sproles set a new mark with 1,465.

Dunn tutored four KSU players who earned All-America citations, including first-team honoree Nick Leckey and third-team picks Ryan Young, Randall Cummings and Andy Eby. Additionally, Ryan Lilja earned All-Big 12 honors and was a starting guard for the Super Bowl champion Indianapolis Colts last year.

The Wildcats went 50-14 during Dunn's KSU tenure from 1998-2002, compiling four 11-victory seasons and four Top 10 finishes.

Dunn's additional coaching stops include Vanderbilt (1996-97), Cincinnati (1994-95), Maine (1990-93) and Rutgers (1989). His first full-time assignment came at Edinboro (Pa.) University, where he coached from 1986-88. Dunn served graduate assistantships at Pitt (1983) and Penn State (1984-85).

Dunn was a three-year letterman during his collegiate career at Pitt (1978-82). He was a member of four teams that finished in the Top 10, including two that finished second in at least one major poll. The Panthers went 11-1 three consecutive years (1979-81), including the 1980 campaign when Pitt was named the nation's top team by The New York Times at the end of the season.

Dunn earned his bachelor's degree in administration of justice.

GREG GATTUSO enters his third season on the Pitt coaching staff and his second coaching the Panthers' defensive line.

A former All-East defensive lineman himself at Penn State during the early 1980s, Gattuso helped mold defensive end Joe Clermond into an all-star caliber player last year. Clermond was selected All-Big East after leading the conference with 16.5 tackles for losses.

Gattuso originally joined the Pitt staff as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator in 2005. In his first season, he helped the Panthers sign a recruiting class rated the nation's 10th best by Scout.com.

A Western Pennsylvania native, Gattuso brings to Pitt a winning resume as a coach and player on both the collegiate and high school levels.

Before joining Pitt, Gattuso spent 12 years building neighboring Duquesne University into one of the elite I-AA football programs in the country. The winningest coach in school history, the Dukes went 97-32 (.752) under his direction, won eight Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) titles, made five bowl appearances and captured the 2003 consensus Mid-Major Division I-AA national championship.

Gattuso was twice named the national Mid-Major I-AA Coach of the Year and was a seven-time MAAC Coach of the Year. The Dukes dominated the MAAC during his tenure, going 66-7 (.904) in league play, including a 33-game winning streak.

Gattuso was an assistant coach at Duquesne in 1992 before taking over the head coaching post the following year. He previously served as head coach at his high school alma mater, Seton-LaSalle, from 1989-91. Taking over a team that went 6-34 during the four seasons prior to his arrival, Gattuso led the Rebels to a 28-10-1 mark (.731), including three WPIAL playoff berths, a WPIAL championship and Parkway Conference title.

A 1980 graduate of Seton-LaSalle High, Gattuso was named the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's Class AA Player of the Year his senior season and went on to a standout career at Penn State, where he was a two-time All-East defensive lineman and a member of the Lions' 1982 national title team.

Gattuso is a 1983 graduate of Penn State with a bachelor's degree in administration and criminal justice.

Aubrey Hill

WIDE RECEIVERS

PITT

Coaching Staff

AUBREY HILL, who was a standout receiver at Florida from 1991-94 before moving onto the coaching ranks, enters his third season on the Pitt coaching staff.

As the Panthers' receivers coach, Hill has produced first-team All-Big East performers each of the last two years.

In 2006, Derek Kinder was honored after finishing second in the conference in receptions per game (4.75) and third in receiving yards per game (70.6). Kinder was a semifinalist for the prestigious Biletnikoff Award, annually presented to the nation's top receiver, and enters his senior season as a top candidate for this year's honor.

Playing opposite Kinder in 2007 will be Oderick Turner, who under Hill's guidance was one of the nation's top freshmen a year ago. Turner was named a Rivals Freshman All-American after tying for the Big East lead with eight touchdown catches.

In Hill's first season at Pitt, Greg Lee was first team All-Big East after leading the league with 87.45 receiving yards per game.

Hill, who played and coached under Steve Spurrier's "Fun 'n Gun" offense at Florida, joined Pitt after working at NCAA I-AA Elon (N.C.) University as receivers coach in 2004. He previously was the receivers coach at Duke for five seasons and also served in a pair of NFL coaching internships.

As a player, Hill helped Florida to a four-year record of 43-10-1 (.806) and three SEC championships. He compiled 86 receptions and 18 touchdowns for his career and caught a touchdown every 4.78 catches, the third best TD ratio in Gators history. He was a team captain as a senior in 1994.

Following his playing career, Hill served as a Florida graduate assistant from 1996-98. In his first season as an assistant, Florida captured the national championship with a 12-1 mark, capped by a 52-20 victory over Florida State in the Sugar Bowl. During his three years on the Florida staff, the Gators went a combined 32-5 (.865).

Hill earned his first full-time appointment at Duke, where he served as receivers coach from 1999-2003. He was instrumental in the development of Scottie Montgomery, who finished his collegiate career ranked second in career receptions (171) and third in yardage (2,379) in Blue Devil annals.

He supplemented his collegiate experience with a pair of NFL internships, including stints with the Washington Redskins (summer 2001) and Miami Dolphins (summer 2002). Hill was involved with receivers and special teams in both internships, working with such pro wideouts as Chris Chambers and Orande Gadsden at Miami and Darnerien McCants and Derrius Thompson at Washington.

Hill owns two degrees from Florida, including a bachelor's in exercise and sport sciences and a master's in leisure/sports management.

DAVID WALKER was a key original appointment by Coach Dave Wannstedt in 2005 as Pitt has put a renewed emphasis on developing a potent and punishing running game. Entering his third season as running backs coach, Walker has helped Pitt take significant steps in achieving that goal.

Under Walker's guidance, LaRod Stephens-Howling was one of the Big East's most productive backs, ranking fourth in the conference in both rushing yards (81.2 per game) and all-purpose yards (105.0 per game).

Stephens-Howling rushed for 221 yards at Syracuse last year, Pitt's first 200-yard performance since Kevan Barlow went for 272 against West Virginia during the 2000 season. On the year, Stephens-Howling rushed for 893 yards despite missing one contest due to injury.

Before joining Pitt, Walker tutored four 1,000-yard rushers in his last five years as running backs coach at Syracuse. He served with the Orange from 1995-2004 and shaped an exceptional record of producing top-flight running backs. He counts among his protégés six backs who played in the National Football League.

The Orange boasted a potent 1-2 punch in the backfield in 2004 with All-Big East running backs Walter Reyes and Damien Rhodes combining for 1,673 yards and 17 touchdowns. Reyes finished his career as SU's second all-time leading rusher with 3,424 yards.

Walker oversaw four consecutive 1,000-yard rushers from 2000-03, a Syracuse record. In '03, Reyes rushed for 1,347 yards, the second-highest single-season total in school history. His 21 touchdowns set an Orange record.

Overall, Walker coached three of the Orange's top seven all-time leading rushers.

A 1993 graduate of Syracuse, Walker was an outstanding running back himself, twice earning All-Big East honors. He captained the 1992 team, leading it to a No. 6 national ranking, 10-2 overall record and 26-22 victory over Colorado in the Fiesta Bowl. Walker remains the sixth-leading rusher in Orange history with 2,643 yards.

Following a year as an assistant coach at Miami's Carol City High School in 1994-95, Walker rejoined his alma mater and helped the Orange to four Big East championships. Including his playing career, he has been part of 12 bowl games.

Walker earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1993.

Buddy Morris

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

PITT

Coaching Staff

Looking to infuse the Pitt weight room with a new sense of purpose and dedication, Dave Wannstedt lured home BUDDY MORRIS as the Panthers' strength and conditioning coach in December 2006.

Morris boasts an accomplished history of training elite players at both the collegiate and NFL levels. The 1980 Pitt graduate previously served as the football team's strength and conditioning coach from 1980-89 and 1997-2001.

His workout regimens are highly regarded and include a focus on strength training, speed development, conditioning, agility training and flexibility.

"Buddy Morris has trained some of the greatest names in college and professional football," Wannstedt said. "He knows what it takes to make a football player – and a football team – reach his highest potential in strength training and physical conditioning. Buddy loves Pitt and I know his dedication and passion for this program are going to pay major dividends in the weight room for us."

Morris rejoins Pitt after serving at the University of Buffalo in 2006 as its director of sports performance and was directly responsible for training the Bulls' football team. Prior to Buffalo, he was the head strength and conditioning coach for the Cleveland Browns from 2002-05, serving under head coach Butch Davis.

In his prior Pitt training stints, Morris' pupils included such legendary figures as Jim Covert, Bill Fralic, Russ Grimm, Dan Marino and Mark Stepnoski among others. He additionally trained latter-day Pitt stars Ruben Brown and Curtis Martin, two of the NFL's most accomplished players over the past decade.

A former Pitt student-athlete himself, Morris was a four-year letterman in track and field for the Panthers from 1977-80. In addition, he helped create the familiar moniker of the Panthers' weight room, "The Pitt Iron Works."

CHRIS LaSALA is in his 11th year as director of football operations at the University of Pittsburgh. LaSala was named an assistant athletic director in 2000.

A native of nearby Aliquippa, Pa., LaSala is truly the Panthers' master of multi-tasking. He coordinates and oversees travel accommodations, youth summer camps, the annual coaches clinic, preseason camp arrangements and all day-to-day administration for the Pitt football team. LaSala also serves as the football program's liaison to numerous campus offices and within the athletic department.

In 2004 he was named a recipient of the Chancellor's Award for Staff Excellence in service to the University of Pittsburgh. In 2006 LaSala was recognized as an "Outstanding Graduate" of Temple University's sport/recreation administration program.

LaSala was a chief coordinator and planner for Pitt's move to its state-of-the-art practice facility, the UPMC Sports Performance Complex. He has been instrumental in the planning of Pitt's trips to the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, 2003 Continental Tire Bowl, 2002 Insight Bowl, 2001 Visit Florida Tangerine Bowl, 2000 Insight.com Bowl and 1997 AXA/Equitable Liberty Bowl.

LaSala's career in athletics began at Temple, where he served as a graduate assistant. He then came to the University of Pittsburgh as an athletic department intern in 1989.

Prior to his 1997 Pitt appointment he served three years as the director of football operations at Boston College (1994-96), where he handled all the administrative duties for the football program, including overseeing the travel arrangements and organizing BC's youth camps.

During his BC tenure, the Eagles captured the 1994 Aloha Bowl and participated in the 1995 Kickoff Classic.

Before Boston College, LaSala spent four years at Temple (1990-93) as recruiting coordinator and ultimately was elevated to assistant athletic director. He initially joined Temple as a graduate assistant in 1988 and then returned to the Owls' football staff in 1990 as the administrative assistant.

LaSala graduated from West Virginia in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in accounting. He earned his master's degree in sports administration from Temple in 1991.

Bob Junko

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL RELATIONS AND PROGRAM ENHANCEMENT

PITT

Coaching Staff

After spending nearly four decades in the coaching ranks, BOB JUNKO will move to the administrative side of college football as he begins his first year as Pitt's director of football relations and program enhancement.

Junko is a natural for the role given his tremendous football acumen and contacts. In this capacity he will assist in the daily operations of the program and also have a focus on the Panthers' extended family of football alumni.

One of the best-known football figures in the tri-state area, Junko has been a highly instrumental figure in the resurgence of Pitt football over the last decade. He played a major role in the Panthers' recent recruiting successes and in 2006 was named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com.

The 2007 season marks the 11th year of Junko's second tour at Pittsburgh. He initially coached at Pitt from 1982-85, serving as defensive coordinator under then head coach Foge Fazio. He returned in 1997 as defensive tackles coach and was elevated to assistant head coach in 2000.

Prior to returning to Pittsburgh, Junko was the defensive coordinator at Kent State from 1995-96. Junko also served as the associate head coach and defensive coordinator for seven years at Akron (1988-94). He additionally held similar positions at Northwestern, TCU and Tulsa, his alma mater.

In his first stint with the Panthers, the 1982 team received a Cotton Bowl bid and finished ninth in the country. The 1983 Panthers earned a Fiesta Bowl berth and ranked 19th in the final polls.

Among the standouts on those defenses were tackle Bill Maas, defensive end Chris Doleman and defensive backs Tim Lewis and Tom Flynn, all of whom went on to careers in the NFL.

As a collegian, Junko starred at Tulsa as an inside linebacker and was an Honorable Mention All-American in 1967. He also was named to the All-Missouri Valley Conference team twice and served as team captain.

Junko earned a bachelor's degree in history education in 1968 and his master's in educational administration in 1970 at Tulsa.

Mike Antonoplos

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR

Mike Antonoplos is in his fourth season with Pitt's football staff and played a very instrumental role in the Panthers' highly regarded recruiting classes the last two years. His behind-the-scenes work helped Pitt land a class ranked as high as eighth nationally in 2007 and 10th in 2006.

Antonoplos provides vital support and planning for Pitt's official recruiting visits. Moreover, he was influential in creating a productive partnership between the football program and Pitt Pathfinders, a group of university undergraduates who provide tours and information for prospective students. Antonoplos additionally represents Pitt football while working with various campus organizations.

Antonoplos joined the Panthers in 2004 after working the previous four years with Pittsburgh's professional sports franchises. From 2002-03, he worked inside sales for the Pittsburgh Pirates, specializing in season and group tickets.

In 2001, Antonoplos worked with the Pittsburgh Steelers' fan relations department and assisted with the team's annual training camp in Latrobe, Pa. He additionally interned with the Pittsburgh Penguins, assisting in customer relations, ticketing, marketing and promotions.

Antonoplos is a 2001 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh with a bachelor's in communications.

Joe Perri

OFFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT/OFFENSIVE LINE

Joe Perri enters his first season as Pitt's offensive graduate assistant. Perri will have a specific focus on the Panthers' offensive line.

A former offensive lineman himself for the Panthers, Perri is a 2007 graduate of Pitt with a bachelor's degree in political science. He was unable to play his final two years due to injuries, but remained an important contributor to the program while serving as an undergraduate assistant. In that capacity he contributed to the daily operations of the team and assisted with the offensive line.

A native of Muskegon, Mich., he was a two-time all-state performer at Muskegon Catholic Central.

DEFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT/CORNERBACKS

Jeff Hafley enters his second season on the Pitt football staff as a defensive graduate assistant with a focus on the cornerbacks.

Hafley served at the University of Albany the prior four seasons, including his final two as defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator. In his initial two years Hafley was a graduate assistant who coached Albany's defensive tackles and outside linebackers.

While at Albany, Hafley oversaw the development of cornerback/roverback Kurt Campbell, who went on to become the only player in school history to be selected in the NFL Draft. Campbell was drafted by Green Bay in 2005 and is a strong safety for the Packers.

Hafley also served as the running backs coach at Worcester Polytechnic Institute during the 2001 season. In addition to overseeing the running backs, he also served as WPI's special teams coordinator and kicking coach.

Hafley was a four-year wide receiver at Siena College from 1997-2000. He began his coaching career at his alma mater while recovering from three separate surgeries that kept him off the field. Hafley is a 2001 cum laude graduate of Siena with a bachelor's degree in history. He earned his master's from Albany in 2003.

Demetreus H. Darden

FOOTBALL ACADEMIC COUNSELOR

Demetreus Darden enters his second year as an academic counselor with the Pitt football program. Darden, a native of Farrell, Pa., joined the University of Pittsburgh in December 2005. He previously worked at neighboring Carnegie Mellon University as a program associate, working in support services for minority students.

Darden graduated from Kent State in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in history. Shortly after graduation he began his career in higher education as a student-activities coordinator at Kent State University's Trumbull Campus.

Football Staff

Jim Hamad

FOOTBALL ACADEMIC COORDINATOR

Jim Hamad is in his third year serving the Pitt football program as its academic coordinator. In this capacity Hamad monitors each student-athlete's academic development, course scheduling and degree completion progress. He additionally is influential in Pitt's NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills Program, counseling student-athletes in career planning, goal setting and life issues seminars.

Before joining Pitt, Hamad was an academic support services graduate assistant with the University of Akron (2003-05). In addition to his work with Akron's student-athletes, he served on the university's Faculty Senate Athletic Committee and was involved in coordinating various community service efforts for the Akron athletic department.

Prior to working with the Zips, Hamad was a teacher/job specialist at Akron North High (2002-03) and a community organizer for the Akron Housing Network (2001).

Hamad graduated from Kent State University in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in conflict management/political science. He earned his master's in higher education administration from Akron in 2005.

Hamad was an outstanding collegiate student-athlete himself, earning All-America honors as a track and field performer while attending Baldwin-Wallace College, an NCAA Division III school, in 1996.

Daniel Kabala

ACADEMIC SUPPORT GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Daniel Kabala enters his third year working with the Pitt football program as an academic support graduate assistant.

Prior to Pitt, Kabala worked at nearby Fox Chapel Area High School, serving as an assistant athletic director and assistant football and track coach for the Class AAAA school from 2002-04. He additionally served in football operations positions with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2000-01) and Axxess Sports &

Entertainment (2001-02).

A 2001 magna cum laude graduate of Indiana University, Kabala earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology. As an undergraduate at IU he was a football administration intern for the Hoosiers from 1999-2000.

Prior to IU, Kabala attended Johns Hopkins University. A member of the Johns Hopkins football team, he ranked eighth in NCAA Division III in kick returns during the 1997 season.

He will complete his master's degree at Pitt's Katz School of Business in December.

Jim Cerullo

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jim Cerullo is in the third year of his second stint at the University of Pittsburgh. Cerullo rejoined Pitt as assistant athletic trainer in 2005. He previously served the Pitt football team as a graduate assistant athletic trainer from 1997-2000.

Prior to his current appointment, Cerullo worked four years at Alfred University, where he was the program director, clinical internship site coordinator and an assistant professor for the athletic training division.

Cerullo was inducted into the prestigious Alfred University Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa, an honors society that recognizes those individuals who have attained a high standard of leadership and achievement with the Alfred community.

Cerullo earned his doctorate degree from Pitt in 2000 and his master's degree from Illinois State in 1995. He earned his bachelor's from Westfield State in 1986. His other professional stops include Endicott College, Framingham State and Rutgers.

Brian Corbett

GRADUATE ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Brian Corbett enters his second year as a graduate assistant athletic trainer with Pitt football. Corbett is currently pursuing his master's degree in sports medicine at the University of Pittsburgh.

Corbett assists Rob Blanc and Jim Cerullo with all the athletic training needs for the Panthers' football program. A 2003 graduate of Salisbury University in Maryland, he aspires to work in a collegiate athletic setting following the completion of his master's.

Following his graduation from Salisbury, Corbett worked as an athletic trainer for Egg Harbor Township (N.J.) High School from 2003-06.

Married, his wife's name is Annemarie.

Coaching Staff

James Smith

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

James Smith enters his first season with Pitt football and will team with Buddy Morris in overseeing the Panthers' strength and conditioning regimens.

Smith boasts impressive experience in weight, speed and conditioning training. He lectures and has written extensively on the subject, authoring two training manuals sold worldwide.

Smith joins Pitt after a three-year tenure at West Valley High School in Cottonwood Calif., where he was a physical education advisor and strength and conditioning coach for the school's highly successful football program. James and his wife Amber also founded, owned, and operated the Power Development Inc. training hall for athletes in Cottonwood.

From 1998-2003, Smith served in the United States Navy. A year-and-a-half of his five-year enlistment was spent in Basic Underwater Demolition SEAL training in Coronado, Calif. As a result, James continues to consult with US Navy SEALs and other military special operations commandos, both foreign and domestic, in their training.

Smith graduated cum laude from Berklee College of Music. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and additionally is certified in CPR.

Chad Lee

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Chad Lee enters his third season as a graduate assistant with Pitt's strength and conditioning program. In this capacity Lee assists Buddy Morris and James Smith with the Panthers' various training regimens throughout the year.

A 2004 graduate of Louisville with a bachelor's degree in justice administration, Lee was a standout linebacker for the Cardinals. He lettered at UL from 1999-2002, helping the Cardinals to four consecutive bowl games and two Conference USA titles. Lee was named to the league's All-Freshman Team and was also a UL Defensive MVP.

Chad Bogard

VIDEO COORDINATOR

Chad Bogard is a vital behind-the-scenes hero for the Pitt football program as its video coordinator. Entering his seventh season with the Panthers, Bogard's work provides an important element to the team's season and game preparation plans. In addition to handling all video work for the football team, he also supervises video production for each of the Panthers' 19 varsity sports.

A two-time recipient of the Big East Conference's Video Coordinator of the Year honor, Bogard joined Pitt after serving with the NFL's Cleveland Browns as assistant video director from 1999-2001. He was responsible for creating video highlight tapes of professional and collegiate player personnel as well as helping coordinate all day-to-day operations. Prior to his work with the Browns, Bogard also served as assistant video coordinator with the New Orleans Saints for two years and the World League of American Football's Scottish Claymores for one season.

He started his career as an intern with the Kansas City Chiefs from 1996-97 after graduating from the University of Wisconsin-River Falls with a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism.

Justin Acierno

VIDEO GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Former Pitt fullback Justin Acierno is in his second season as a video graduate assistant. In this capacity he works with video coordinator Chad Bogard in serving the team's various practice and game film needs.

Acierno was a three-year letterman for the Panthers (2003-05) as a fullback and special teams performer. A product of nearby Pittsburgh Central Catholic, he was a walk-on at Pitt his first four seasons before earning a scholarship for his senior season in 2005.

Acierno was twice selected to the Big East All-Academic Team. He will complete his master's degree at Pitt's Katz School of Business in December.

Football Staff

Tim Enright

HEAD FOOTBALL EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Tim Enright is in his 11th year as the head equipment manager for the Pitt football team. In this capacity he supervises the equipment operation for the 100-plus member team, including organizing travel and transportation of equipment for away games and managing the day-to-day equipment needs for the players and coaching staff.

Enright has a long association with Pitt football and the University of Pittsburgh. As an undergraduate at Pitt, he was a student football manager (1987-91) and served as the team's head manager his senior year. Following graduation in 1991, Enright worked one year at Martin Media Advertising before serving as a youth counselor at the Shuman Detention Center. He returned to his alma mater in 1993 as an assistant equipment manager in charge of the men's basketball team. Enright was promoted to his current post with the football team in 1997.

Zac Saunders

EQUIPMENT ASSISTANT

Zac Saunders has been a valuable resource for Pitt football's equipment division for the last seven years. Saunders was a student equipment manager from 2000-05, serving four of those years as head manager. He currently serves as a graduate assistant and was the recipient of Pitt's prestigious George I. Carson Graduate Fellowship Award. Saunders earned his bachelor's degree in economics and psychology in 2005 and is currently pursuing his master's in higher educational administration.

PITT

2006 Season in Review

Game 1

PITT 38 • VIRGINIA 13
SEPT. 2, 2006
HEINZ FIELD (46,758)

PITTSBURGH—Pitt opened its 2006 season with big plays on both sides of the ball and rolled past Virginia, 38-13, under the lights at Heinz Field.

The Panthers never trailed en route to their ninth season-opening victory in the last 10 years. The win also avenged Pitt's 2003 loss to the Cavaliers in the Continental Tire Bowl, the last time the two teams met.

Offensively, Tyler Palko threw three touchdown passes, including two longer than 70 yards. The senior was virtually flawless, completing 77 percent of his passes (17 of 22) for 283 yards with one interception.

With a youthful receiving corps getting major scrutiny during the preseason, Pitt's offense responded by showcasing a deep passing attack. Palko threw scoring strikes of 72 yards to Oderick Turner and 78 to Derek Kinder, marking the two longest passing plays ever by Pitt at Heinz Field.

Defensively, the Panthers returned two interceptions for touchdowns. Cornerback Darrelle Revis had a 19-yard return that put Pitt up 24-10 midway through the third quarter. Linebacker Clint Session put the finishing touches on the victory with a 78-yard return for a score late in the fourth period.

The Panthers limited Virginia to 211 yards, including a mere 52 on the ground. Cavalier running backs were swarmed all evening as they managed just 2.5 yards per carry.

Pitt gave a glimpse of things to come with an outstanding opening drive. The Panthers took the opening kickoff and churned out a 14-play, 65-yard touchdown drive that was capped by a one-yard scoring pass from Palko to Darrell Strong.

Palko hit 7-of-7 passes on the march while connecting with six different receivers.

Virginia countered with a 48-yard field goal later in the period before Pitt seized a 17-3 lead in the second quarter courtesy of a Conor Lee field goal (38 yards) and Turner's long touchdown catch.

Pitt looked like it was ready to build on the 14-point cushion until Nate Lyles returned an interception 47 yards to the Panthers' 13 with under a minute left in the half. Jason Snelling scored from two yards out to make it 17-10 at halftime.

But that would be as close as the Cavaliers would get. Revis' interception return boosted the lead back to 14 and then Kinder outfought a Virginia defender for the ball and raced for his 78-yard score to make it 31-13 entering the final period.

The final 25-point margin of victory was Pitt's largest in an opening game since 2003.

Middle linebacker H.B. Blades collected a game-high 13 tackles. In addition to his interception return, Session had nine tackles, including two for losses.

At halftime, Pitt commemorated the 30th anniversary of its undefeated 1976 national championship team led by Heisman Trophy winner Tony Dorsett, who was in attendance.

Game 2

PITT 33 • CINCINNATI 15
SEPT. 8, 2006
NIPPERT STADIUM (20,611)

CINCINNATI—Pitt blew open a tight affair in Cincinnati with two long touchdown catches by Derek Kinder as the Panthers used a big third quarter to defeat the host Bearcats, 33-15.

Kinder turned a short pass from Tyler Palko into an 80-yard touchdown on the first play of the second half. Later in the period, Kinder would get behind the Cincinnati secondary for a 55-yard touchdown that gave Pitt a commanding 23-0 lead and essentially sealed the game's result.

Kinder compiled a career-high 172 yards receiving on just three receptions — a whopping average of 57.3 yards per catch. Palko completed 11-of-21 passes for 267 yards on the night and threw three touchdown strikes for the second consecutive game.

With the victory, the Panthers improved to 2-0 for the first time since 2003 and also won their Big East opener for the first time in three years. The Bearcats fell to 1-1 and 0-1.

Game Summaries

Making their first trip to Cincinnati since 1922, the Panthers earned a welcomed road victory after failing to win in five away games last year.

Pitt's shortcomings on the road in 2005 were largely the result of failing to make the big play. The Panthers received plenty of those in the Cincinnati victory with the first one coming on the defensive side of the ball.

With the teams mired in a 0-0 deadlock late in the first half, Pitt corner Kennard Cox intercepted a Dustin Grutza screen pass and returned it two yards to the Bearcat 18. Two plays later, Palko hit Oderick Turner with a 15-yard touchdown pass for the game's first score with 1:49 left in the half.

For the second week in a row the Pitt defense stood tall. The Panthers bottled up Cincinnati ball carriers for just 35 yards on 30 carries, a meager 1.2 yards per rush. It was the lowest rushing total allowed by Pitt since it limited Oregon State to eight yards in a 2002 Insight Bowl victory.

The Panthers held Cincinnati scoreless until a fumbled punt late in the third quarter set up a short Bearcat touchdown drive. Grutza threw a 15-yard TD strike followed by a 2-point conversion pass to make it 26-15 with 4:35 left.

A fumbled Pitt handoff on the ensuing possession gave Cincinnati the opportunity to make it interesting in the game's waning moments. Ultimately, the Panthers turned the Bearcats back on a fourth-and-inches play at the Pitt eight to end the threat.

Darrelle Revis provided the game's final points with a 57-yard interception return for a touchdown with four seconds left. It was Revis' second return for a TD in as many games as he had a 19-yard score against Virginia the previous week.

Pitt improved to 6-0 all-time against the Bearcats.

Game 3

MICHIGAN STATE 38 • PITT 23

SEPT. 16, 2006

HEINZ FIELD (47,956)

PITTSBURGH—Pitt suffered its first setback of the season at the hands of visiting Michigan State, which used a powerful rushing attack to claim a 38-23 victory at Heinz Field.

The Spartans literally ran to victory in this game, sparked by a pair of 100-yard rushers. Tailback Javon Ringer gained 156 yards on 15 carries (10.4 avg.), while quarterback Drew Stanton rushed for 105 yards and a touchdown on 13 attempts (8.1 avg.). As a team, Michigan State (3-0) rolled up 335 yards on the ground.

Stanton, who burned the Panthers on options and scrambles throughout the afternoon, also was effective through the air. The senior completed 16-of-25 passes for 198 yards and two touchdowns. It all added up to a decided statistical advantage for Michigan State, which outgained the Panthers 533 to 358. The Spartans also had an 11-minute, 16-second advantage in time of possession and converted 11-of-15 third downs.

The afternoon actually began promisingly for Pitt (2-1), which staked a 10-0 first-quarter lead. The Panthers scored on two of their first three possessions, including a 32-yard field goal by Conor Lee and an eight-yard run by LaRod Stephens-Howling.

The second quarter, however, marked a significant swing in momentum. Rather than striking back with big plays, the Spartans used methodical and lengthy drives to get back into the game.

Michigan State used a 13-play, 63-yard drive capped by Brett Swenson's 43-yard field goal, and an 11-play, 83-yard drive climaxed by a two-yard scoring reception by Kellen Davis to tie the score at 10 with under a minute to go in the half.

Pitt had one last threat before intermission, reaching the Spartans' 36 after T.J. Porter had a 53-yard kickoff return. The half ended, though, with Michigan State intercepting a pass at the goal line.

The Spartans scored touchdowns on their first four possessions of the second half to put the game away. Stanton accounted for two of those scores, rushing in from one yard and also throwing a 12-yard touchdown pass to Kerry Reed. Jehuu Caulcrick accounted for the other two on short runs.

Pitt would score two touchdowns in the final three minutes. Tyler Palko hit Steve Buches with a 10-yard scoring strike with 2:52 left. Derek Kinder would haul in a 49-yard scoring pass on the last play of the game to provide the final margin. Kinder finished with nine receptions for 121 yards, his second 100-yard receiving game of the season.

It was the first game between the two schools since 1960.

Game 4

PITT 51 • THE CITADEL 6

SEPT. 23, 2006

HEINZ FIELD (30,069)

PITTSBURGH—Pitt showcased a laser-accurate passing game in a 51-6 rout of The Citadel at Heinz Field.

Tyler Palko completed 15-of-17 passes — an 88.2% completion rate — for 313 yards and four touchdowns to spark the victory. Palko's four TDs went to four different receivers, including Derek Kinder, Conredge Collins, Marcel Pestano and Oderick Turner.

Palko's performance moved him to fourth all-time at Pitt in both career passing yards and total offense. Moreover, Palko's 88.2% completion rate was the sixth highest since the Big East Conference began playing football in 1991.

Tight end Darrell Strong also got in the passing act, throwing a 30-yard touchdown pass to LaRod Stephens-Howling on a gadget play. Stephens-Howling, seemingly recovered from his early season ankle injury, rushed for a seven-yard score and had 66 total rush yards on 13 attempts.

The Panthers overwhelmed The Citadel, a I-AA school, on the scoreboard and statistically. Pitt outgained the Bulldogs, 506-152. The Citadel managed just 99 yards passing and 53 on the ground.

Pitt, meanwhile, threw for 361 yards. Turner was the game's leading receiver with a career-high 130 yards on just five catches (26.0 avg.) with a 52-yard score. Kinder, who played only three quarters, had four catches for 75 yards (25.0 avg.). He scored the game's opening touchdown with a 20-yard reception.

Pitt scored touchdowns on five of its first six possessions in the first half en route to a 35-6 lead at intermission. It was the most points scored by the Panthers in an opening half since posting 38 against Rutgers in 2004. Pitt also surpassed 50 points for the first time since the 1999 season when it routed Temple, 55-24.

Pitt worked quickly on its touchdown drives. The Panthers scored on drives of four plays (twice), three plays (twice) and one play. Its longest drive covered 10 plays.

Palko's big day gave him 6,655 yards in total offense for his career, moving him past running back Tony Dorsett (6,526) and quarterback John Congemi (6,351) in Pitt annals.

Palko's 6,612 yards passing also advanced him past Congemi (6,467) on the Panthers' career list.

With the victory, Pitt moved to 3-1 for the third time in five seasons. The Citadel, which also lost to a I-A opponent in Texas A&M earlier in the month, fell to 0-3.

The Panthers remained unbeaten in six contests against I-AA foes. It was the first time they had played The Citadel.

Game 5

PITT 45 • TOLEDO 3
SEPT. 30, 2006
HEINZ FIELD (31,212)

PITTSBURGH—Pitt rolled to its second consecutive rout of an opponent at Heinz Field with a 45-3 victory over visiting Toledo.

The Panthers seized control early and were never threatened in this contest. Pitt grabbed a 17-0 lead after one quarter and never looked back in improving to 4-1 for the first time since the 2002 season.

The scoring onslaught began early courtesy of a pair of Pitt defensive gems.

Tyler Palko threw a nine-yard touchdown pass to Derek Kinder shortly after Toledo (2-3) failed to convert on fourth-and-one from its own 42. Just one play later, defensive tackle Gus Mustakas made a perfect read on a Toledo screen pass, intercepting it and rumbling nine yards for a touchdown and 14-0 Pitt lead just four minutes into the contest.

Mustakas' interception return was Pitt's fourth for a touchdown this year, just one shy of the school record for defensive TDs in a season set in 1986. It also marked the first touchdown by a defensive lineman since tackle Demond Gibson had a pick for a score against Rutgers in 1999.

Pitt's offense was fueled by another efficient outing through the air. Palko completed 12-of-15 passes for 172 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions in three quarters of work. Kinder's TD catch marked his sixth on the year and gave him at least one scoring reception in five consecutive games.

The Panthers compiled 374 yards in total offense compared to 230 for Toledo, which gained most of its yards once the game's result had been decided. H.B. Blades collected a game-high 11 tackles, while Clint Session added eight stops.

Pitt forced four turnovers, including two fumbles and a pair of interceptions. Eric Thatcher had his first career interception, thwarting a Toledo drive by picking off a pass in the end zone late in the third period.

Pitt led 24-3 at intermission and put the contest away with a 21-point third quarter. Fullback Conredge Collins capped the opening drive of the second half with a 13-yard scoring burst. Freshman tailback Kevin Collier added a five-yard scoring run just over three minutes later to make it 38-3.

After seeing his collegiate debut delayed due to some nagging injuries, Dorin Dickerson saw his first playing time. Dickerson found the end zone on a 14-yard reverse on his first carry from scrimmage late in the third quarter to complete the scoring.

Pitt improved to 24-2 all-time against members of the Mid-American Conference, including a perfect 23-0 at home. The victory avenged the Panthers' 35-31 setback at Toledo in 2003.

Game 6

PITT 21 • SYRACUSE 11
OCT. 7, 2006
CARRIER DOME (41,870)

SYRACUSE, N.Y.—LaRod Stephens-Howling became Pitt's first 200-yard rusher in six years, lifting the Panthers past Syracuse in the Carrier Dome, 21-11. The victory improved the Panthers to 5-1 on the year and 2-0 in Big East play.

Stephens-Howling rushed for 221 yards on 27 carries — an average of 8.2 yards per rush. His 70-yard touchdown burst gave Pitt a 14-3 lead and command of the game in the second quarter.

The diminutive tailback became Pitt's first 200-yard rusher since Nov. 24, 2000, when Kevan Barlow went for 272 against West Virginia in Three Rivers Stadium. Syracuse (3-3, 0-1) failed to tackle Stephens-Howling behind the line of scrimmage for a single loss the entire game. As a team Pitt netted 236 yards on 35 carries, a 6.7-yard average.

Complementing the running game was a pinpoint passing attack. Tyler Palko, who entered the game as the nation's pass efficiency leader, completed 20 of 24 for 177 yards and a touchdown with no interceptions.

Palko hit his first 13 passes and also accounted for the game's first score when he rushed in from four yards out to give Pitt a 7-0 lead just two-and-a-half minutes into the contest.

Palko's lone touchdown pass came late in the third quarter and gave the Panthers a commanding 21-3 lead. Facing third-and-goal at the Orange one-yard line, Palko faked a handoff up the middle, turned and hit tight end Steve Buches for the score.

2006 Season in Review

The Pitt offense was the beneficiary of strong blocking up front in both the pass and run games. Syracuse entered the game with a national-best 25 sacks (five per game), but managed just one on the day. The Panthers' offensive line featured first-time starter Joe Thomas, a true freshman, who was replacing injured fifth-year senior John Simonitis at right guard.

Meanwhile, Pitt's defense had its most disruptive game of the season to date. The Panthers muzzled Syracuse's offense for most of the game, limiting it to 92 rush yards and compiling five sacks.

Pitt's defensive end tandem of Chris McKillop and Joe Clermond combined for four sacks and two fumble recoveries to lead the charge. McKillop had 2.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. Clermond had 1.5 sacks and three total tackles for losses. In the middle, linebacker H.B. Blades achieved another double-digit tackle performance with a game-high 10 stops.

The victory was the Panthers' fourth over the Orange in the past five games. It was also Pitt's second in the Carrier Dome in its last three visits.

Game 7

PITT 52 • UCF 7

OCT. 13, 2006

FLORIDA CITRUS BOWL (35,858)

ORLANDO, Fla.—Pitt achieved its best start to a season in 24 years by steamrolling past host Central Florida, 52-7, in the Florida Citrus Bowl.

The Panthers notched their fourth consecutive victory to improve to 6-1 on the year, their best record after seven games since Pitt's 1982 edition, led by quarterback Dan Marino, started 7-0.

The 45-point margin of victory was Pitt's largest in a road game since 1983, when the Panthers routed Louisville, 55-10.

Pitt seized control early and never let go in this game. Lowell Robinson returned the opening kickoff for a 97-yard touchdown, giving the Panthers a 7-0 lead just 18 seconds into the contest. Pitt led 21-0 after one quarter and 38-0 at halftime. The Panthers never punted the entire game and had zero turnovers.

LaRod Stephens-Howling, coming off his 221-yard rushing performance at Syracuse, continued his dazzling play by scoring three touchdowns and gaining 135 yards on 19 carries (7.1 avg.). He had scoring runs of 23 and 26 yards less than four minutes apart in the first quarter to put the Panthers up 21-0 at the 6:08 mark. He added a six-yard TD scamper early in the third period to boost the lead to 45-0.

Tyler Palko continued his efficient form by completing 11-of-15 passes for 172 yards and two touchdowns. The senior quarterback did not throw an interception for the fourth consecutive game and engineered scoring drives of 86 and 93 yards. After dissecting the UCF defense with a series of short passes, Palko hit a streaking Oderick Turner with a 54-yard bomb a minute into the second quarter to put Pitt up 28-0. He later connected with fullback Conredge Collins on an 11-yard scoring pass right before intermission.

Pitt scored on its first six possessions and eight of 10 for the game. The Panthers missed a 27-yard field goal as the first half expired. Pitt's other drive came at the end of the game as it wound off the final six minutes by keeping the ball on the ground.

Defensively, Pitt forced four turnovers, including three fumbles and an interception. After the Panthers took a 7-0 lead, UCF (2-4) drove to the Pitt 40 where Clint Session sacked quarterback Steven Moffett and forced a fumble. Rashaad Duncan recovered to end the threat. Later in the quarter, the Golden Knights moved to the Pitt nine-yard line but Tommie Campbell intercepted Moffett, returning it 61 yards to the UCF 37.

H.B. Blades paced Pitt with a game-high 10 tackles and added a six-yard sack, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. UCF tailback Kevin Smith, who entered the game averaging more than 100 rushing yards per game, was held to just 70 yards and 3.5 yards per carry.

The game was played at the site of Pitt's 2001 Tangerine Bowl triumph over NC State (34-19).

Game 8

RUTGERS 20 • PITT 10

OCT. 21, 2006

HEINZ FIELD (49,620)

PITTSBURGH—Pitt's high-scoring offense and four-game winning streak were grounded in this game as visiting Rutgers earned a 20-10 victory over the Panthers at Heinz Field.

Pitt entered the contest averaging nearly 38 points a game. But Rutgers, boasting the nation's top scoring defense and No. 2 total defense, limited the Panthers to a field goal and single touchdown.

The Scarlet Knights controlled the contest with an effective rushing game and mistake-free offense. Moreover, they sacked Pitt quarterback Tyler Palko five times on the night, equalling the number of sacks the Panthers had given up in the season's previous seven contests.

Led by Ray Rice, Rutgers churned out 268 yards on the ground. Rice went for 225 of those yards by himself and made the game's key play just as it seemed momentum was swinging to Pitt.

Rice ripped off a 63-yard run in the fourth quarter to set up his own short touchdown plunge immediately after the Panthers had closed to within three points. Rice's TD provided the game's final points and ultimately was all the cushion Rutgers would need to secure just its second victory ever in Pittsburgh.

The Panthers had drawn to within 13-10 on Palko's eight-yard pass to Oderick Turner. Facing a heavy rush, Palko scrambled to buy time and then fired across the field to a leaping Turner in the back of the end zone.

With the touchdown, Pitt appeared poised to seize momentum. The opportunity was quickly lost, though, when on Rutgers' subsequent possession Rice ripped off his 63-yard burst followed by another 20-yard run to set up the clinching touchdown.

Jeremy Ito's field goals of 32 and 21 yards in the first half gave Rutgers a 6-0 intermission lead. Conor Lee added a 46-yarder for Pitt early in the second half to make it 6-3.

The Scarlet Knights went up 13-3 late in the third period when quarterback Mike Teel hit Tiquan Underwood on a seven-yard scoring pass. Teel threw the ball just 18 times — completing 10 — but led a Rutgers offense that didn't throw an interception or lose a fumble.

The Scarlet Knights beat Pitt in consecutive seasons for the first time in the 25-year-old series. The Panthers had won 19 of 23 contests against Rutgers heading into this year's encounter.

Rutgers improved to 7-0 overall for the first time since 1976 and 2-0 in Big East play. The Panthers fell to 6-2 and 2-1.

Game 9

USF 22 • PITT 12

NOV. 4, 2006

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (35,671)

TAMPA—Playing for the first time in two weeks, Pitt seemingly came off its open date sluggish and never got on track in a 22-12 setback to South Florida at Raymond James Stadium.

The Bulls' outstanding first-year quarterback Matt Grothe was the sparkplug for USF. Grothe compiled 231 yards in total offense, including 180 through the air and 51 on the ground. He also accounted for two touchdowns with a one-yard run and 46-yard pass.

The performance of the South Florida defense also keyed the result of this contest. The Bulls (6-3, 2-2 Big East) kept the Panthers bottled up for most of the afternoon, limiting Pitt to only 214 total yards. The usually efficient Pitt passing attack never hit stride as Tyler Palko was just 11 of 23 for 159 yards. He was sacked twice and threw three interceptions, the last coming on a desperation heave with under a minute left in the contest.

On the ground Pitt (6-3, 2-2) produced just 55 net rushing yards and averaged only 2.4 yards per attempt. The Panthers converted just two of their 10 third-down situations in the game. Moreover, Pitt was penalized 11 times for 96 yards.

South Florida grabbed the lead less than five minutes into the game by driving 65 yards in 11 plays. Taurus Johnson capped the march with a 22-yard touchdown run off a double reverse. Johnson's score marked the first TD given up by Pitt in the opening quarter this season. Previously the Panthers had surrendered just two field goals in the first quarter.

Pitt responded later in the quarter with a 41-yard field goal by Conor Lee to make it 7-3. The Panthers then turned back a USF drive with an interception by H.B. Blades at the Pitt 36. The Bulls, though, forced a three-and-out and then moved 50 yards in six plays to take a 14-3 lead courtesy of Grothe's short touchdown run.

In the third period Pitt drew within 14-6 on Lee's 34-yard field goal. The score came after Clint Session ripped the ball away from USF's Cedric Hill, who had made a reception at the Bulls' 40.

But any Pitt aspirations to cut further into the deficit were ended when Grothe threw a 46-yard scoring strike to Amarri Jackson, giving the Bulls a 20-6 lead with 3:58 left in the third.

Although Grothe would leave the game with a foot injury, USF added to its lead with a safety early in the final quarter providing the Bulls with all the point cushion they would need.

Despite the loss, Pitt did receive a standout performance from Blades who, in addition to his interception, had a game-high 12 tackles and blocked a field goal.

Game 10

CONNECTICUT 46 • PITT 45 (20T)

NOV. 11, 2006

RENTSCHLER FIELD (40,000)

EAST HARTFORD, Conn.—Connecticut quarterback D.J. Hernandez scrambled into the end zone for a two-point conversion in the second overtime, lifting the host Huskies to a stunning 46-45 victory over Pitt at Rentschler Field.

Hernandez led Connecticut (4-5, 1-3 Big East) back from a 14-point deficit in the fourth quarter using his legs and his arm. The sophomore completed 20-of-29 passes for 164 yards and four touchdowns, including a one-yard scoring strike with three seconds left in regulation to force overtime.

He was equally damaging on the run, continuously alluding Pitt's rush and breaking into the secondary. Hernandez finished with 130 yards rushing on 17 attempts, an average of 7.6 per carry.

Connecticut also received a standout performance from redshirt freshman tailback Donald Brown, who carried 43 times for 205 yards and two touchdowns. In total, Connecticut compiled 317 yards rushing while averaging 5.1 per attempt.

It was Brown's 10-yard touchdown run in the second overtime that drew the Huskies to within 45-44. Connecticut elected to forego an extra-point kick and instead went for the win with the two-point try. Hernandez scrambled away from a blitzing Clint Session and rolled right into the end zone to cap UConn's furious rally.

Pitt (6-4, 2-3) held a 31-17 lead after Tyler Palko snuck in from one-yard out to cap a seven-play, 62-yard drive late in the third quarter. The Panthers appeared to have control in the final period when a punt by Adam Graessle pinned the Huskies back at their own two-yard line with just over 12 minutes left.

But Connecticut responded by driving 98 yards and pulled within seven points when Hernandez, again on the scramble, hit Brown with an eight-yard scoring pass.

The game-tying drive began with 3:14 left in regulation. Hernandez hit six passes on the march, including a one-yarder to tight end Danny Murray in the back of the end zone with three seconds left.

The Huskies took the lead in the first overtime when Brandon Young made a diving catch in the end zone. Pitt tied it when Palko hit fullback Conredge Collins with a one-yard pass on fourth down.

In the second overtime period, LaRod Stephens-Howling scored from one yard to put Pitt up 45-38. The TD was set up by a 24-yard reception by Derek Kinder.

It would be Pitt's last lead. Brown's final touchdown pulled UConn within 45-44, setting the stage for Hernandez's winning two-point conversion.

The loss overshadowed fine performances by Palko, who was 20 of 25 for 234 yards and three TDs, and Stephens-Howling, who rushed for 154 yards and two scores.

Game 11

WEST VIRGINIA 45 • PITT 27

NOV. 16, 2006

HEINZ FIELD (55,642)

PITTSBURGH—Pitt and West Virginia waged the football equivalent of a track meet in the first half, trading scores and piling up yardage before a national ESPN Thursday night television audience. In the second half, however, the Mountaineers pulled away with the big-play talents of quarterback Pat White and tailback Steve Slaton to claim a 45-27 victory at Heinz Field.

The Panthers seized a 27-24 lead at intermission behind the arm of quarterback Tyler Palko and one of the most exciting special teams plays in Pitt history.

Palko completed 16 of his 19 first-half passes — an 84% completion rate — and threw a pair of scoring strikes. He gave Pitt a 7-0 lead with a 23-yard touchdown pass to freshman tight end Nate Byham and later tied the score at 14 in the second period with a 15-yarder to Oderick Turner.

The Panthers (6-5, 2-4 Big East) would take a 24-17 lead with 2:18 left in the half on a dazzling 73-yard punt return by Darrelle Revis. After fielding the punt along the far sideline, Revis ran right and was initially sprung by a devastating block by Derek Kinder, who knocked out two West Virginia covermen with one blow. Revis then weaved in and out of Mountaineers down the right sideline on the way to the end zone.

Ranked as high as No. 7 in the national polls, West Virginia (9-1, 4-1) would strike back quickly as White hit Slaton with a 67-yard touchdown pass to tie the game again with under a minute to go. The Panthers, however, went into intermission with the lead as Conor Lee kicked a 39-yard field goal just before the half expired.

West Virginia's speedy playmakers would take control of the game in the third period.

White ran for scores of 64 and 19 yards on the Mountaineers' first two possessions of the second half. The sophomore signal-caller would also finish with 220 yards rushing, equaling his total against the Panthers a year prior.

Entering the game as the country's No. 2 rusher, Slaton was held to just seven yards on six carries in the first half.

Even when he was contained on the ground, he proved to be a major factor in the game, catching a pair of scoring passes in the opening two quarters. But in the second half Slaton proved uncontainable, finishing with 215 yards rushing in addition to his 130 yards receiving.

The loss was Pitt's fourth consecutive, its longest losing streak in five years.

2006 Season in Review

Game 12

LOUISVILLE 48 • PITT 24
NOV. 25, 2006
HEINZ FIELD (41,881)

PITTSBURGH—Pitt concluded the regular season with a 48-24 loss to visiting Louisville at Heinz Field. Similar to the Panthers' previous game with West Virginia, Pitt could not capitalize on first half momentum as the No. 8 Cardinals pulled away over the final two quarters.

Louisville quarterback Brian Brohm was the difference in this contest, throwing four touchdown passes and no interceptions. Brohm completed 72% of his passes (21 of 29) for 337 yards.

Brohm was on target all evening, especially when throwing to wideouts Mario Urrutia and Harry Douglas. Urrutia averaged over 20 yards per catch, hauling in seven receptions for 144 yards and a 42-yard touchdown. Douglas averaged 33 yards per reception, totaling 132 yards on just four catches. His 75-yard touchdown closed out the game's scoring late in the fourth quarter.

Pitt was within striking distance at halftime, trailing just 24-17. The Panthers actually held a 14-7 lead in the first quarter after Oderick Turner caught a 21-yard scoring pass from fellow wideout Derek Kinder on a gadget play. Earlier, LaRod Stephens-Howling scored on a six-yard run to tie the game, 7-7.

Driving toward an eventual Big East championship and Bowl Championship Series berth, Louisville (10-1, 5-1 Big East) came roaring back. The Cardinals would score 10 consecutive points in less than a three-minute span to take a 17-14 lead.

Pitt placekicker Conor Lee tied the game with a 30-yard field goal at the 9:12 mark of the second period before Louisville eventually took full control.

Twenty-four unanswered points would put the game away for the Cardinals. Brohm connected on a pair of short touchdown passes, while JaJuan Spillman rushed in from 13 yards out to make it 38-17 with six minutes to go in the third. Art Carmody kicked a 42-yard field goal early in the final period to give the Cardinals an insurmountable 24-point lead.

The Panthers (6-6, 2-5) lost their fifth in a row after winning six of their first seven contests. The five-game losing streak marked Pitt's longest since 2001.

The game was the final home contest for 18 Pitt seniors. Palko finished his collegiate career ranked second all-time at Pitt in total offense (8,429) and TD passes (tied with 66) and third in school annals in career passing yards (8,343). Linebacker H.B. Blades, who would earn first team All-America honors at season's end, finished his career with 433 tackles to rank third all-time at Pitt.

* In the 1960s, the AFL established the same draft format as the NFL by drafting in an inverse order of finish. Each league had its own draft, allowing for athletes to be drafted by the AFL and the NFL.

 Jack Durishan was drafted in 1943 by Pittsburgh. He served in the armed forces and after returning was drafted again in 1947 by the New York Yankees.

 Steve Jastrzembski was drafted by Boston (AFL) in 1962 and Baltimore (NFL) in 1961.

Rating Systems

To settle countless arguments, Sports Illustrated in 1970 researched the first and only complete and wholly accurate list ever compiled of college football's mythical national champions. Every recognized authority that ever presumed to name a No. 1 was included:

Associated Press (1936-current) poll of sportswriters and broadcasters.

Parke H. Davis Ratings (1889-1935) chosen by Davis, a player at Princeton in 1889 and a former coach at Wisconsin, Amherst and Lafayette, and first published in the 1934 Spaulding's Football Guide.

Dickinson System (1924-40) chosen by University of Illinois economics professor Frank G. Dickinson; based on system that awarded various point totals for wins over teams with winning or non-winning records.

Dunkel System (1929-current) a power index rating system devised by Dick Dunkel and syndicated to newspapers around the nation.

Football Writers Association of America (1954-current) chosen by a five-man committee representing membership.

Helms First Interstate Bank Athletic Foundation (1889-1982) originally founded in 1936 as Helms Athletic Foundation and changed in the early 1970s to Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation before current name was adopted in 1981.

Illustrated Football Annual (1924-41) an "azzi ratem" system published in this highly regarded magazine by William F. Board.

Litkenhous System (1934-1984) a "difference-by-score" method syndicated by Fred Litkenhouse and his brother Edward.

National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame (1959-1995) chosen annually by committee representing membership.

The Football Thesaurus (1927-58) system devised by Duke Houlgate and published in book of same title.

United Press International (1950-1995) poll of 35 college coaches. (Became the USA Today coaches poll.)

Williamson System (1932-63) system of syndicated power ratings chosen by Paul Williamson, a geologist and member of the Sugar Bowl committee.

Tony Dorsett and John Majors led Pittsburgh to its last national championship in 1976.

The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) was devised in 1998 to determine a national champion for college football. The arrangement matches the country's two top-rated teams against each other in a title game. Participating bowls include the Fiesta, Orange, Rose and Sugar. In addition to those four games, a BCS National Championship Game will be played at one of the bowl sites, which began for the 2006 season.

*Majors was inducted for his accomplishments as a player at Tennessee.

Dan Marino (left) is the fourth Panther player to receive induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Tony Dorsett, Mike Ditka and Joe Schmidt are the others. Mark May (bottom left) became the 23rd Panther player or coach to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

Pro Football Hall of Fame

DAN MARINO is the latest Pitt player to earn induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, officially receiving the honor on Aug. 7, 2005. Marino had a legendary 17-year career with the Miami Dolphins. An eight-time Pro Bowler, he retired after the 1999 season holding an incredible 25 NFL regular-season records and as the career leader in passing attempts (8,358), completions (4,967), yardage (61,361) and touchdowns (420). He was also one of the winningest quarterbacks in NFL history, earning 147 regular-season victories, one behind all-time leader John Elway.

TONY DORSETT was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1994. When he retired from the NFL following the 1989 season, he was the league's second all-time leading rusher with 12,739 yards. Dorsett has the distinction of being one of only two players in the history of football to win the Heisman Trophy, a collegiate national championship, a Super Bowl championship, and to be elected into the college and pro football halls of fame.

MIKE DITKA was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1988. Ditka was an All-America tight end at Pitt in 1960, his senior season. Ditka's pro football career included All-Pro honors. He also was a member of the Chicago Bears' 1963 NFL Championship squad. Ditka worked as an assistant coach at Dallas for nine seasons, spent 11 seasons as the head coach of the Chicago Bears and three seasons as head coach of the New Orleans Saints.

JOE SCHMIDT, Pitt's other inductee in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, was an All-America linebacker at Pitt in 1952. He went on to spend 13 years with the Detroit Lions, and was a member of the Lions' two NFL championship teams. He later coached the team for six seasons and led Detroit to its only playoff appearance of the 1970s. He was inducted in 1973.

Retired Jerseys

Dan Marino Quarterback

1979-82

- While at Pitt from 1979-82, broke nearly every major passing record in school history, including career marks for passing yards (8,597) and completions (693).
- Twenty-five years after his final collegiate season, still holds Pitt records for touchdown passes in a career (79) and season (37).
- Led Pitt to four consecutive Top 10 finishes, including a pair of No. 2 rankings.
- Enhanced his reputation for delivering in the clutch in the 1982 Sugar Bowl, when he threw a 33-yard touchdown pass to tight end John Brown with 35 seconds left to give Pitt a come-from-behind 24-20 victory over Georgia.
- Named a 1981 All-American and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting that year.
- A first-round draft pick of the Miami Dolphins in 1983, Marino went on to gain recognition as one of the greatest quarterbacks in NFL history with a record-breaking 17-year career. He retired following the 1999 season as the league's all-time leader in passing attempts (8,358), completions (4,967), yardage (61,361) and touchdowns (420).
- Was elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

Tony Dorsett Running Back

33

1973-76

- Winner of the 1976 Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Award and Walter Camp Award and was a four-time All-American (1973-76).
- First player in NCAA history to reach 6,000 career rushing yards. Including bowl games, rushed for 6,526 yards. His NCAA-recognized total (not including bowls) of 6,082 yards stood as the Division I record for 22 years (1976-98).
- Gained 100 or more yards 36 times, including 20 consecutive games.
- Remains Pitt's all-time leading scorer with 380 points.
- Holds Notre Dame opponent records for rushing yards against the Irish in a career (754) and game (303).
- Led Pitt to the 1976 national championship with a 12-0 record.
- In 1977, was the first-round pick of the Dallas Cowboys where he played 11 seasons (1977-88), including two Super Bowls and four Pro Bowls. Played his final year with the Denver Broncos (1989) and finished his career as the second all-time leading rusher in NFL history (12,739).
- Was elected into the College Football Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1994.

Marshall Goldberg Running Back

42

1936-38

- Earned back-to-back All-America honors as a halfback (1937) and fullback (1938).
- Member of the famed "Dream Backfield" at Pitt, considered one of college football's greatest back tandems ever.
- Was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy in 1938 and placed third in the Heisman balloting in 1937.
- Led Pitt to national championships in 1936 and 1937 with a combined 17-1-2 record.
- Spent seven years in the NFL playing halfback for the Chicago Cardinals (1939-42, 46-48).
- Member of the Cardinals' 1947 NFL championship team and had his No. 99 jersey retired by the franchise.
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1958.

Joe Schmidt Linebacker

- Earned All-America honors as a senior linebacker in 1952.
- As both a collegian and professional, Schmidt was considered the era's prototype for linebacker play — instinctive, aggressive and smart.
- Played in 10 Pro Bowls during his 13-year career (1953-65) with the Detroit Lions, which included two NFL championships.
- Served as the Lions head coach from 1967-72, leading Detroit to its only playoff appearance in the 1970s.
- Elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1973 and College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

Panther History

Mark May

Offensive Tackle

1977-80

73

- Named a unanimous All-American and the winner of the prestigious Outland Trophy in 1980. To this day he remains Pitt's only winner of the Outland.
- Did not give up a sack his final two collegiate seasons.
- Was Pitt's "go-to" player on third-and-short situations, earning him the nickname "May Day."
- Helped lead Pitt to a four-year record of 39-8-1, including four bowl games and three Top 10 finishes.
- Was selected by the Washington Redskins in the first round of the 1981 NFL Draft and achieved fame as a standout member of the team's "Hogs" offensive line from 1981-90. Helped the Redskins to three Super Bowls (1982, 1983 and 1987), including world championships in '82 and '87. Finished his pro career with the San Diego Chargers (1991) and Arizona Cardinals (1992-93).
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

Bill Fralic

1981-84

- A three-time first team All-American, including unanimous status as a junior and senior.
- Became the first offensive lineman to twice finish in the top 10 of the Heisman Trophy balloting, placing sixth in 1984 and eighth in 1983.
- His collegiate career led to the creation of the "Pancake," a statistical barometer for each time Fralic put an opposing defensive lineman on his back.
- The second player taken overall in the 1985 NFL Draft, Fralic went on to an exceptional pro career from 1985-93, playing eight years with the Atlanta Falcons and his final season with the Detroit Lions. He was selected to the Pro Bowl four times.
- Was elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1998.

Mike Ditka

End

1958-60

89

- Was a unanimous All-America selection at end in 1960.
- Led Pitt in receiving three consecutive years and was also a standout linebacker and punter. He additionally played baseball and basketball at Pitt and was the intramural wrestling champion.

- In 1961 he was a first-round draft choice of the Chicago Bears and was a member of their 1963 NFL Championship team. He was also a member of the Dallas Cowboys when they won Super Bowl VI and earned All-Pro four times.
- Spent 11 seasons as the head coach of the Chicago Bears, leading them to victory in Super Bowl XX, and later coached the New Orleans Saints.
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1986 and Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1988.

Hugh Green

Defensive End

1977-80

99

- A three-time first team All-American and won the 1980 Lombardi Award, Maxwell Award and the Walter Camp Award.
- Finished second in the 1980 Heisman Trophy balloting, an unprecedented finish for a purely defensive player.
- Was the first-ever defensive player to win the Walter Camp Award.
- Named to Pitt's All-Time Team after just his sophomore year.
- Twenty-seven years following his final collegiate season, remains Pitt's all-time sack leader with 49.
- Helped lead Pitt to a four-year record of 39-8-1, including four bowl games and three Top 10 finishes.
- First-round selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1981 and played 11 years in the NFL.
- Elected into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

Bobby Grier (wearing number 38) became the first African-American to ever play in the Sugar Bowl on Jan. 2, 1956.

STANFORD	0	0	7	0	—	7
PITTSBURGH	0	0	6	0	—	6

Pitt's first bowl trip resembled a politician's whistle-stop tour—wherever Pitt was at lunchtime during its trek west, it practiced. The routine was simple: deboard the train around 11:15; explore the day's town until noon; lunch at 12; walk lunch off, then practice; reboard the train. So it was that Pitt practiced in Dodge City, Albuquerque and Winslow, Arizona, on the way to Pasadena. The game had a sentimental storyline: the coach against his mentor. Panther Head Coach John B. "Jock" Sutherland had played for Stanford Coach Glenn "Pop" Warner when the latter was at Pitt. Amidst all that, the game, although close, was controlled by Stanford. Pitt grabbed a 6-0 third-quarter lead when Jimmy Hagan scooped up a Cardinal fumble and ran 20 yards for a touchdown. The extra point was missed. Stanford, which made several marches deep into Pitt territory, finally scored on an unusual play. On fourth-and-goal at the two, Stanford quarterback Biff Hoffman completed a pass to Bob Sims, but it was short of the goal line. Sims was hit and fumbled, but Frank Wilton picked up the loose ball and carried it in to tie the game. Hoffman's extra point won it, 7-6. Pitt, a slight favorite entering the game, mustered very little offense in its first of four Rose Bowl games.

If vintage football films give you the impression that the game of the 20s and 30s was run, run, and run again, think again. USC's Trojans bombed Pitt with an all-out passing attack. The game started on a bright note for "Jock" Sutherland's team when Toby Uansa rushed 68 yards on Pitt's first play. Pitt failed to score, then the walls caved in. Gaius Shaver connected with Henry Edelson for a 55-yard touchdown. Later in the quarter, Shaver hit Ernest Pinckert for a 28-yard score, capitalizing on a Pitt fumble. Another fumble led to USC's third touchdown, a short run which opened the score to 19-0. Two Jesses set up the Trojans' next score when Jesse Mortensen and Jesse Hill teamed for a 51-yard pass play. Russell Saunders helped convert a USC interception into a 33-0 lead with his 13-yard scoring run. Pitt finally broke through in the third quarter when Uansa threw a 28-yard pass to William Wallinchus. Southern Cal sandwiched two more long touchdown passes (38 and 62 yards) around a Tom Parkinson-to-Paul Collins 36-yard TD pass for Pitt to arrive at the final score. In all, the Trojans scored the most points against Pitt since 1903. It would be Sutherland's second-worst margin of defeat in his 15 seasons at Pitt; the worst would come three years later, also against USC in the Rose Bowl.

Pitt's coach, John B. "Jock" Sutherland, would try a new play after two Rose Bowl losses, so he took the team to Tucson to practice for its first Rose Bowl win. Instead Sutherland suffered the worst loss in his Pitt career. It was the first time since 1928 that Pitt was shut out and actually lost the game; it had played four scoreless ties since a 6-0 loss to Carnegie Tech. With 83,000 in attendance, the Panthers stayed close until the fourth quarter before collapsing. USC's Homer Griffith threw, and later caught, a touchdown pass as the Trojans built a 14-0 lead through three quarters. After Irvine Warburton scored to make the score 21-0, Pitt fumbled the kickoff, and Warburton scored again shortly thereafter. A blocked punt set up the final touchdown. Several Panthers were singled out by the crowd with standing ovations: ends Ted Dailey and Joe Skladany, guard Charles Hartwig, and back Warren Heller, who rushed for 63 yards in the final game of his brilliant Pitt career.

"Jock" Sutherland was intent on winning the Rose Bowl in his fourth try. To that end, Pitt spent two weeks working out on the west coast, for Sutherland was not going to accept 0-4 in Rose Bowl play. His tactics worked, and captain Bobby LaRue led Pitt to a 21-0 victory. LaRue's running set up the first touchdown of the game, which, fittingly, he scored. LaRue's 50-yard run in the third quarter, which would have gone 75 yards for the touchdown if not for a diving tackle, set up Frank Patrick's touchdown. Pitt led, 14-0, after three quarters. The defense added a late touchdown, returning an interception. So elated was Sutherland that he substituted every player who made the trip, so each could forever relate the experience of playing in a Rose Bowl victory. After four tries, the coach had finally overcome one of the few obstacles in his remarkable career.

A controversial pass interference penalty against Pitt's Bobby Grier, the first black man ever to play in the Sugar Bowl, put Georgia Tech on the doorstep for the game's only touchdown. Pitt, under new Head Coach John Michelosen—the only man in Pitt history to play and coach in bowl games (he was a quarterback on the 1936 Rose Bowl team)—had several chances to tie the game but hit a wall of futility. Grier's penalty gave Tech the ball on the 1, from where Wade Mitchell snuck in for the score. A fumble killed a first-quarter drive, then quarterback Corny Salvaterra was stopped on a fourth-and-goal just before halftime. Pitt's Ray DiPasquale intercepted a pass to squelch a fourth quarter threat by Tech. In the final moments, Pitt made a furious attempt to tie the game. The Panthers, who were penalized twice on the last drive, were on Tech's 5-yard line when time ran out.

Coach John Michelosen's team had wanted a rematch with Georgia Tech, but the result was the same—a seven-point loss. Pitt outgained Tech by 106 yards, 313-207, but was plagued by turnovers. Georgia Tech converted an early interception into a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. Pitt was stopped on a goal-line stand at the start of the second quarter, and Tech increased its lead late in the quarter with a halfback-option TD pass. Pitt quarterback Corny Salvaterra hit Dick Bowen with a 36-yard scoring pass just before the half, and Pitt trailed, 14-7. Bowen's fumble on the second-half kickoff set up the clinching touchdown. Pitt pulled to within seven on Salvaterra's sneak, but could draw no closer.

A new era in Pitt football was ushered in with the Panthers' first bowl appearance in 17 years. Coach-of-the-Year Johnny Majors had revived a struggling program and Pitt was 6-4-1 entering this game. Freshman Tony Dorsett was a big part of the turnaround, rushing for 1,686 yards. Pitt struck first, with Dorsett scoring two plays after Tom Perko recovered Arizona State quarterback Danny White's fumble on the first play of the game. But the Sun Devils, playing on their own field, proved too tough. Woody Green scored four plays after Dorsett's touchdown to tie the game. Arizona State scored three touchdowns in 6:04 of the fourth quarter, and although Pitt blocked all three extra points, the game ended one-sided after being tied at halftime. Dorsett rushed for 100 yards, but Pitt turned the ball over seven times. Both quarterbacks, White and Pitt's Billy Daniels, threw three interceptions, but White completed 14-of-19 for 269 yards. Daniels was 7-20 for just 57 yards.

A player rushing for 100 yards is impressive. Two players on the same team is remarkable. Three is unheard of, but that is how Pitt knocked off Kansas. Elliott Walker (11 carries for 123 yards, 11.2 average) got the ball rolling with a 60-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Tony Dorsett (27-142) scored two touchdowns in the second quarter. Pitt had nearly 300 rushing yards at the intermission. Quarterback Robert Haygood ran the veer offense to perfection, rushing for 101 yards (14 carries) when he wasn't busy pitching out to Dorsett. Haygood also connected with Gordon Jones for a touchdown after Walker scored his second of the game. Jones set up his own touchdown with a 63-yard kickoff return. With eight wins, Pitt had its best season since 1963. Dorsett rushed for 1,686 yards on the season, matching his 1973 total.

The many remarkable accomplishments Tony Dorsett achieved in his four years at Pitt were punctuated by his role in this win, one that gave Pitt its first national championship in 39 years. Dorsett, quarterback Matt Cavanaugh and a marauding defense just would not be denied in the first indoor Sugar Bowl game. Cavanaugh, named the game's MVP, scored from six yards out to give Pitt a 7-0 lead. The celebration of that touchdown became a Sports Illustrated cover that can be seen at several sites around Pitt's campus. The photo headline simply read: "PITT IS IT!" Gordon Jones turned a short pass into a 59-yard touchdown excursion in the second quarter. Dorsett's 10-yard score late in the half cemented the victory. He was far from through, however. After gaining 65 yards in the first half, the Heisman Trophy winner exploded in the second to finish with a Sugar Bowl record 202 yards rushing, including 67 on one run that set up one of Carson Long's two second-half field goals. The defense created six turnovers, and limited the Bulldogs to 181 yards. Pitt defenders actually caught more Georgia passes than did Georgia receivers (four interceptions, compared to three completions in 22 attempts). Vince Dooley, Georgia's head coach, said this about the 12-0 Panthers: "They proved today they are the best in the country. They have amazing balance; they are the best defensive team we've seen. I think that is obvious. They are also the best offensive team we've faced." Pitt coach Johnny Majors, who completed his four-year stint at Pitt with a 33-13-1 record (after a combined 13-29 mark in the previous four years) was named Coach-of-the-Year for the second time at Pitt.

Pitt set five Gator Bowl records for offensive proficiency in an astounding demolition of the highly regarded Clemson Tigers. Matt Cavanaugh completed 23-of-36 passes for 387 yards and four touchdowns as Pitt outgained Clemson, 566-268. Three scoring tosses went to fullback Elliott Walker, who joined Tony Dorsett as the second Pitt back ever to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. Gordon Jones scored the other TD on one of his 10 receptions for 163 yards. Cavanaugh threw for 211 yards and two touchdowns in the first half alone. Clemson's vaunted passing combination of Steve Fuller-to-Jerry Butler was rendered ineffective by a Pitt secondary which swooped in for four interceptions, two by senior safety Bob Jury. Cavanaugh, an All-American in 1977, missed part of the season after suffering a broken wrist against Notre Dame in the first game of the year. "I shudder to think what he could have done had he stayed healthy," said Panther Coach Jackie Sherrill, who finished his first year at Pitt with a 9-2-1 mark.

The Panthers saved their worst performance of the season for this bowl outing with North Carolina State. Primarily a running team in 1978, Pitt attempted to open it up on this night, throwing 48 passes. Four were intercepted, however. The Wolfpack, led by star running back Ted Brown, rolled up a 23-3 fourth quarter lead before Pitt quarterback Rick Trocano tried to bring the Panthers back. An 18-play drive featured four fourth-down conversions, the last of which resulted in a Freddie Jacobs touchdown. Pitt moved to State's 34-yard line with five minutes remaining, but an interception settled the issue. Trocano was intercepted twice more before the game ended, but he also led Pitt to the game's final touchdown. "Execution on our part was our biggest problem," Coach Jackie Sherrill said. "We didn't play well...and the turnovers hurt us." Pitt finished 8-4.

Pitt finished the 1979 season with a 10-game winning streak, built in part around the arm of freshman quarterback Dan Marino. The season finale came on Christmas Day, with the Panthers rounding out an 11-1 campaign with a 16-10 win over Arizona. The Wildcats, coached by former Pitt radio commentator Tony Mason, threatened often but did not score a touchdown until the game's waning moments. Junior cornerback Terry White intercepted two passes. One set up the second of three Mark Schubert field goals; the other allowed Pitt to run out the clock. Two of Schubert's kicks were from 46 yards out. Pitt's only touchdown came after a 12-play drive, with Marino hitting Benjie Pryor from 12 yards out. The last three plays of the drive: Marino to Mike Dombrowski for 34 yards, Marino to Ralph Still for 24 yards, and the touchdown.

Pitt's defense wanted this game badly. Its leader for four years, Hugh Green, finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting behind South Carolina's George Rogers. With the chance to avenge that result, Pitt smothered Gamecocks with a swarming defense and an efficient offense. Rick Trocano and Dan Marino split time at quarterback; each threw a touchdown pass and Trocano added a short TD run. Although Rogers gained 113 yards, his two fumbles were more of a factor in the game than his rushing output. Tom Flynn recovered Rogers' fumble on the first play of the game, leading to Trocano's score. Randy McMillan scored two touchdowns as Pitt rolled to a 37-3 lead. The defense was led by Rickey Jackson, who made 19 tackles (14 solos). Pitt finished the season 11-1.

One of the most dramatic finishes in Pitt football history gave Pitt its second Sugar Bowl win over Georgia. Pitt trailed, 20-17, with 42 seconds remaining. It faced a fourth-and-5 at the Bulldog 33. Coach Jackie Sherrill disdained the potential 50-yard field goal attempt. "With five minutes to go I said we were not here to tie, we were here to win," Sherrill said. Dan Marino wanted to throw a short pass to a running back to get the first down, but a Georgia blitz left tight end John Brown in single coverage down the middle. Marino was right on target for the touchdown, his third of the game. The Panther defense limited Herschel Walker to 84 yards on 25 carries.

The Panthers' season came to a dismal end as Pitt lost to Southern Methodist in the Mustangs' own backyard. Dan Marino, in his last game at Pitt, was plagued by dropped passes on the cold, rainy day. He completed 19-of-37 for 181 yards. Fumbles were the story of the first quarter. Joe McCall lost one at the SMU one-yard line, but Mustang QB Lance McIlhenny returned the favor with a fumble at the Pitt seven. Eric Schubert's missed field goal attempt left the game scoreless at the half. Marino completed five straight short passes to set up Schubert's 43-yard kick which gave Pitt its only points. SMU's "Pony Express" backfield (Eric Dickerson and Craig James) led an 80-yard drive, which McIlhenny capped off with a nine-yard run. Pitt's last chance ended when a Marino pass was tipped and intercepted in the end zone.

John Congemi completed a school-record 31 passes for 341 yards, but a late Ohio State touchdown pass spoiled Congemi's, and Pitt's, afternoon. Congemi's second-quarter touchdown pass to tight end Clint Wilson tied the score at 7-7, but the Buckeyes led, 14-7, entering the fourth quarter. Wilson fell on Joe McCall's fumble in the end zone to tie the score early in the fourth quarter. Ohio State's Keith Byars scored his second touchdown by returning the ensuing kickoff 99 yards. Congemi was six-for-six on Pitt's next touchdown drive, which culminated with an 11-yard pass to Dwight Collins. Congemi, who completed 19-of-27 in the second half, had his conversion pass broken up, and Pitt trailed, 21-20. A 17-play drive later in the quarter ended with Snuffy Everett's 37-yard field goal to put the Panthers on top. Quarterback Mike Tomczak led Ohio State back, ending an 89-yard drive with a 39-yard bomb to Thad Jemison, who scored with 39 seconds remaining. Head Coach Foge Fazio's Panthers drove to the Buckeye 24, but could get no further.

Despite late heroics from Larry Wanke, Pitt was grounded in this aerial circus, as Texas quarterback Brett Stafford and split end Tony Jones set Bluebonnet Bowl records. The New Year's Eve crowd was treated to an action-packed game from the start. Stafford connected with Jones for a 77-yard touchdown on the first play from scrimmage. Pitt retaliated quickly: Billy Owens returned the kickoff 45 yards, Billy Osborn hit Reggie Williams for 45 more yards on a trick play; then Craig Heyward tied the score with a four-yard burst. Six plays later, the Longhorns took the lead for good as Stafford hit Jones on a short pass that he broke for a 60-yard touchdown. Stafford finished the first quarter with 202 yards passing on the way to a 368-yard night. Jones set records for receiving yards and longest reception. Wanke replaced Darnell Dickerson early in the third quarter after Dickerson suffered a knee injury. Wanke completed 8-of-20 passes for 172 yards and three touchdowns, including two late in the fourth quarter that cut the Longhorns' lead to five. Heyward rushed for 136 yards, winning his personal battle with Texas star Eric Metcalf, who finished with 95 yards rushing. Heyward ended the season with 1,791 yards, the second-best in Pitt history. Pitt finished the year at 8-4, their most successful season since 1983.

Led by bowl MVP Alex Van Pelt's 354 yards passing, Pitt parlayed a John Hancock Bowl-record 530 yards in offense into a 31-28 come-from-behind victory over Texas A&M. It was a day of firsts for the Panthers. Paul Hackett, named head coach moments before kickoff, won his first game as a head coach. It also was Pitt's first bowl win since the Panthers' 24-20 Sugar Bowl victory over Georgia in 1982. Van Pelt, who completed 20 of 40 passes and threw for two touchdowns, rallied the Panthers from a 28-24 deficit, when he connected with Henry Tuten on a 44-yard touchdown strike with just 2:19 remaining in the game, giving Pitt a 31-28 lead. Tailback Curvin Richards rushed for 156 yards on 23 carries and scored the first points of the game with a 12-yard TD. Texas A&M countered with a nine-yard touchdown run by quarterback Lance Pavlas, tying the score at 7-7 to end the first quarter. With the score tied at 10 late in the first half, Van Pelt threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to Ronald Redmon, giving Pitt a 17-10 halftime lead. Flanker Olanda Truitt completed his freshman season in stellar fashion, catching four passes for 124 yards, including a key 59-yard reception that set up Redmon's score. Carnel Smith finished the game with 10 tackles and Barry Threats had a game-ending interception, which ended Texas A&M's final drive and secured the Panthers' victory. The Hancock Bowl win marked the end of another decade in Pitt football history and the dawn of the Hackett coaching era. The Panthers finished the 1989 season with an 8-3-1 record.

Bowl History

AXA/EQUITABLE LIBERTY BOWL • DEC. 31, 1997

Memphis, Tenn., Liberty Bowl

SO. MISS.	7	7	14	13	—	41
PITTSBURGH	0	7	0	0	—	7

Playing its first postseason game in eight seasons, Pittsburgh fell victim to an opportunistic Southern Mississippi defense and suffered a 41-7 defeat in the 1997 AXA/Equitable Liberty Bowl. It was the Panthers' first-ever appearance in the Liberty Bowl and their first bowl game since a 31-28 victory over Texas A&M in the 1989 John Hancock Bowl. Pittsburgh threatened early, driving to the Golden Eagles' 13 on its initial series, but failed to score any points. Southern Miss responded with a pair of touchdown drives for a 14-0 second-quarter lead. The Panther offense, held in check for most of the game, had its lone shining moment when quarterback Pete Gonzalez connected with Jake Hoffart on an 89-yard pass-and-run touchdown as Pittsburgh trailed 14-7 at halftime. Hoffart, who finished with five catches for 121 yards, set a Liberty Bowl record with his touchdown catch. The Panthers, however, would come no closer. USM's defense returned a fumble and two interceptions for touchdowns in the second half to roll to its first victory ever over Pittsburgh.

INSIGHT.COM BOWL • DEC. 28, 2000

Phoenix, Ariz., Bank One Ballpark

IOWA STATE	7	20	0	10	—	37
PITTSBURGH	7	0	13	9	—	29

Making its second postseason appearance under Walt Harris, Pittsburgh rolled up big offensive numbers but fell in a shootout to Iowa State, 37-29, in the Insight.com Bowl. The Panthers held statistical advantages in total offense (491 yards to 375), passing (347 to 308) and rushing (164 to 107). The Panthers struck on their very first possession of the game when John Turman hit a streaking Antonio Bryant for a 72-yard touchdown and 7-0 lead. The Cyclones, however, responded with 27 unanswered points, including 20 in the second period. Pittsburgh pulled within 27-14 when Rod Rutherford snuck in from two yards out. Bryant then made a brilliant diving catch for a 44-yard touchdown and the Panthers trailed 27-20 with 2:05 left in the third. The Panthers' momentum was slowed when Iowa State's JaMain Billups returned a punt 72 yards for a score early in the fourth. Kevan Barlow, who finished with 114 rushing yards, bulled in from the three to make it 34-29 at the 9:45 mark. But the Panthers could draw no closer. The contest marked the first football game ever played in Bank One Ballpark, home of Major League Baseball's Arizona Diamondbacks.

VISIT FLORIDA TANGERINE BOWL • DEC. 20, 2001

Orlando, Fla., Florida Citrus Bowl

NC STATE	3	7	0	9	—	19
PITTSBURGH	3	21	3	7	—	34

Pittsburgh captured its first bowl victory since 1989 with a 34-19 win over NC State in the Visit Florida Tangerine Bowl. The victory gave the Panthers their strongest close to a season since 1980 by winning their final six games.

Hobbled by an ankle injury, Antonio Bryant went on to earn Most Valuable Player honors after catching seven passes for 101 yards and two touchdowns. David Priestley put up MVP-like statistics himself, completing 18-of-32 passes for 271 yards and the two scoring strikes to Bryant. The duo propelled the Panthers to a 24-10 halftime lead. The Pittsburgh defense held strong and limited Wolfpack quarterback Philip Rivers to just 189 yards through the air and sacked him four times. NC State closed to 27-19 in the fourth quarter but blitzing Lewis Moore quelled the threat when he sacked Rivers and forced a fumble. Tyre Young picked it up and ran 16 yards untouched for the clinching TD. Moore, who finished with seven tackles (all solo), including two for losses, was named Pittsburgh's Defensive MVP.

INSIGHT BOWL • DEC. 26, 2002

Phoenix, Ariz., Bank One Ballpark

PITTSBURGH	7	3	14	14	—	38
OREGON STATE	7	3	3	0	—	13

Pittsburgh achieved its finest season in two decades with a 38-13 triumph over Oregon State in the Insight Bowl. The Panthers finished 9-4, their winningest season since 1982, and secured a spot in the final national polls for the first time since 1989. The win marked the Panthers' second consecutive postseason victory. A stifling defensive effort, efficient offense as well as a special teams gem keyed the result. Tied at 10 at halftime, OSU quarterback Derek Anderson was intercepted by Tez Morris, who returned the ball 36 yards to the Beavers' 23 early in the third quarter. Rod Rutherford completed a 22-yard pass to Larry Fitzgerald to the one before rushing up the middle for a 17-10 lead just three minutes into the second half. The Panthers broke open the contest later in the third when Shawn Robinson fielded a punt at the Panthers' 34, ran wide to the right and sprinted down the sideline for a 66-yard touchdown. It was the first punt return for a TD in Pittsburgh's bowl history. Pittsburgh iced the game with a 44-yard touchdown drive climaxed by Brandon Miree's seven-yard burst. Miree, who earned the game's Offensive MVP honor, finished with 113 yards rushing on 20 carries (5.7 avg.). In contrast, OSU tailback Steven Jackson — who entered the game as the nation's fifth-leading rusher — was held to a season-low 34 yards.

CONTINENTAL TIRE BOWL • DEC. 27, 2003

Charlotte, N.C., Ericsson Stadium

PITTSBURGH	0	13	3	0	—	16
VIRGINIA	7	10	3	3	—	23

A skillful and methodical opening drive that moved 69 yards to the Virginia one-yard line ultimately failed to produce any points, setting the tone in Pittsburgh's 23-16 loss in the Continental Tire Bowl. Virginia scored the game's first touchdown four plays later and went on to win its second consecutive Continental Tire Bowl. Missed opportunities were the theme for Pitt, which finished 8-5 for the season, with a missed extra point, missed field goal, an interception and a lost fumble on a potential game-tying drive. Heisman Trophy runner-up Larry Fitzgerald saw his NCAA record touchdown streak end at 18 games, but the All-American still led the Panthers with five catches for 77 yards. Brandon Miree rushed for 110 yards and added four receptions, including one for a 17-yard touchdown. The scoring pass from Rod Rutherford was his 37th of the season, tying Dan Marino's school record set in 1981.

TOSTITOS FIESTA BOWL • JAN. 1, 2005

Tempe, Ariz., Sun Devil Stadium

PITTSBURGH	0	0	7	0	—	7
UTAH	7	7	21	0	—	35

Making its first appearance in the Fiesta Bowl since the 1983 season, Pitt fell victim to a lethal Utah passing game and equally potent pass rush in a 35-7 defeat. Tyler Palko was sacked a Fiesta Bowl-record nine times and the Panthers' offense was grounded most of the evening. The Utes finished the 2004 season with a 12-0 record and ranked as high as fourth in the final polls. Pitt finished with an 8-4 mark and ranked No. 25. Utah scored touchdowns on five of its first seven possessions, including all three in the third quarter. Pitt advanced into Utah territory three times in the first half but four sacks and a blocked field goal kept the Panthers off the scoreboard. The Panthers' lone score came on a beautiful over-the-shoulder grab by Greg Lee that went for a 31-yard touchdown with 4:28 left in the third quarter. Lee had seven receptions for 93 yards, while fellow wideout Joe DeSardo had nine catches for 109 yards.

Football Lettermen

The following list was compiled from various sources during the summer of 1981, and has been updated and corrected annually since then. Although all cautions were taken to avoid errors, we do realize that names were most likely omitted due to the immensity of the task. If you have additions, or find errors in the list, please contact the Media Relations Office. Active players are in bold.

The University

CHANCELLOR AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Mark A. Nordenberg

This past year was the 12th year of Mark Nordenberg's service as Chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh. It also was another very big year for Pitt.

It was big in terms of goals achieved, as we burst through the billion dollar mark in our capital campaign. It was big in terms of milestones observed, as we celebrated Pitt's 220th birthday. And it was big in terms of historic projects launched, as we began efforts to preserve the exterior of our signature building, the Cathedral of Learning.

According to Chancellor Nordenberg, however, this past year was another big year mainly because it brought continuing levels of very high performance. "In virtually every key area of institutional activity," he has said, "the people of Pitt added to our already enviable record of impact and achievement." Consider the following examples.

- In terms of student attainment, Pitt was the only public university in America to claim both Rhodes and Marshall Scholars in 2007, underscoring the fact that the development of truly outstanding students is one of our defining qualities.

- In terms of research strength, Pitt now ranks 7th among all American universities in terms of research grants competitively awarded to members of its faculty by the National Institutes of Health and is poised to climb even higher on that elite list.
- In terms of international impact, all four of Pitt's area studies centers, as well as its international business center, were re-designated national centers of excellence by the U.S. Department of Education. Pitt also was named one of the country's leading producers of both Fulbright Scholars and Peace Corps volunteers.
- In terms of community commitment, Pitt received national recognition as a "best neighbor" urban university, one of just seven major research universities identified as "saviors of our cities" for efforts dramatically strengthening the local economy and improving the quality of life in neighboring communities.

Perhaps the biggest news of the past year came when the Center for Measuring University Performance released its annual report on The Top American Research Universities. Building on a belief that "top universities have strength in research, private support, faculty, graduate and post-graduate programs, and quality undergraduates," the Center assesses institutional performance across nine objective measures. Pitt placed in its very top group of America's public research universities — joining Berkeley, Illinois, Michigan, North Carolina, UCLA and Wisconsin, which is very good company.

Chancellor Nordenberg consistently praises the faculty, staff, students, alumni, and friends of Pitt for all they have contributed to the University's dramatic and ongoing rise within the ranks of the nation's finest universities. Others have been quick to add that an exceptional senior leadership team also has been an essential ingredient. Acting on that belief, University trustees, alumni leaders and other key friends marked the end of the Chancellor's first decade in office by contributing $2.5 million to endow a faculty chair in his name. In announcing that unique gift, Pennsylvania Supreme Court Justice Ralph J. Cappy, who chairs the Pitt Board of Trustees, said of the Chancellor, "Your commitment to excellence, your valuing of people, your high personal integrity, and your plain, old-fashioned hard work have set a standard that is the foundation for our future."

Chancellor Nordenberg joined the Pitt faculty thirty years ago, with what initially was just a nine-month appointment as a visiting assistant professor of law. When that first contract was extended, he quickly rose through the faculty ranks and served as Law School Dean of the School of Law from 1985 to 1993 and as Interim University Provost from 1993 to 1994. In 1994, he was elevated to the special faculty rank of Distinguished Service Professor. He was elected Interim Chancellor in 1995 and Chancellor in 1996.

While still a young faculty member, Chancellor Nordenberg was the initial recipient of the Law School's Excellence-in-Teaching Award, which now is presented annually. The following year, he became one of the first recipients of the Chancellor's Distinguished Teaching Award. His area of academic specialty is civil litigation, and he has served as a member of both the U.S. Supreme Court's Advisory Committee on Civil Rules and the Pennsylvania Supreme Court's Civil Procedural Rules Committee.

Among his many civic activities, Chancellor Nordenberg has chaired committees and commissions focused on such matters as the challenges facing the state's urban schools, the development of an action plan for regional work force development, issues of governance in the Pittsburgh public schools, and the efficiency and effectiveness of city-county government. Reflecting his strong commitment to technology-based economic development, he is the founding board chair or co-chair of the Pittsburgh Digital Greenhouse, the Pittsburgh Life Sciences Greenhouse, the Pittsburgh Robotics Foundry, and The Technology Collaborative.

Chancellor Nordenberg serves on the board and executive committee of the Allegheny Conference on Community Development and is a director of the Bank of New York Mellon Corporation. He has received many special forms of recognition for his leadership within the University and the broader community. Among them, he was named Pittsburgh's Person of the Year by both Vectors Pittsburgh and Pittsburgh magazine. He also has received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education, Division II.

Chancellor Mark Nordenberg and wife Dr. Nikki Nordenberg with Bear.

His strong interest in University of Pittsburgh athletics long pre-dates his service as Chancellor. His commitment to excellence in athletics is reflected in the facilities that have been constructed, the people who have been recruited, and the programs that have been elevated in recent years. He served as Chair of the Big East Conference during its recent period of reorganization. He currently is a member of the Conference's executive committee and also serves as the Big East's representative to the Bowl Championship Series. He is a past member of the board and executive committee of the NCAA.

Born in Duluth, Minnesota, Chancellor Nordenberg first moved to this region as a high school senior, when his father was transferred to Pittsburgh by U. S. Steel. He is an honors graduate of North Allegheny High School, Thiel College, and the University of Wisconsin Law School. He has been married for thirty-six years to Nikki Pirillo Nordenberg, who earned her Ph.D. at Pitt. The Nordenbergs have three adult children — Erin, Carl and Michael. All are graduates of the University's Falk School. Erin also has a master's degree from Pitt's School of Information Sciences. The youngest member of the family is their dog, Bear. He has no Pitt degrees but is a fearsome fan of the Panthers.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR Jeff Long

Visitors to the University of Pittsburgh's Petersen Events Center may notice a striking photograph displayed throughout many of the offices within the Pitt Athletic Department.

The image features the profile of the impressive Panther statue that sits at the peak of Pitt's upper campus. Looming behind the Panther is the equally powerful Cathedral of Learning, the university's historic academic building that stretches 42 stories into the sky.

Emblazoned on a gold plaque beneath the picture are the words "Fulfilling Academic and Athletic Dreams."

The photograph was placed throughout the Events Center by Pitt athletic director Jeff Long to serve as a continuous and inspiring reminder of the department's daily mission.

The picture's blending of academic and athletic symbols is no coincidence. The image is reflective of Long's philosophy that intercollegiate athletics are an integral part of a university community that makes valuable contributions to the institution's overall educational mission.

Those principles have fueled the ambitions for Long's administration from the day he was appointed Pitt's athletic director in May 2003. The Athletic Department will strive to help Pitt's more than 452 student-athletes achieve their goals — academically, athletically, personally and professionally.

Lofty goals? Absolutely. But carrying such high aims has resulted in Pitt establishing itself as one of the Big East Conference's — and the country's — upwardly mobile athletic programs.

The first four years of Long's tenure have been characterized by winning performances on the fields of play, high achievement in the classroom and bold initiatives in the areas of facilities, development and overall student-athlete welfare.

One indication of Pitt's success was revealed in the Sports Illustrated on Campus All-Sport Rankings (December 2006), which listed the Panthers No. 17 nationally.

Still another more comprehensive view into Pitt's success was revealed when the university was visited by the NCAA Division I Committee on Athletics Certification this past year. A "certified" designation is given when an institution operates its athletics program in conformity with principles established by NCAA Division I membership.

Not only was the University of Pittsburgh recertified, but the NCAA peer review team described many areas of Pitt's program as "models for others to follow."

Under Long's guidance, Pitt is continuously looking for ways to break new ground, both in terms of achievement and in enhancing the student-athlete experience. Such thinking led to Long's collaboration with the Provost and his staff to create the new position of career and life skills coordinator for student-athletes, which has greatly strengthened the athletic department's developmental and educational efforts.

That mindset is also revealed in Pitt's ambitious facility plan for Olympic sports that includes future construction of new competitive venues for baseball, softball, soccer and track and field as well as the Pitt Band.

Such ambition and energy have led to some remarkable achievements over the last four years.

Among the highlights:

- In 2005, Pitt Athletics launched the "Quest for Excellence" campaign. The athletic department's "Quest" is focused on the enhancement of the Pitt student-athlete experience. It aims to increase endowed athletic scholarships, capital gifts for building and improvement projects and annual contributions for student-athlete scholarships. Just over two-and-a-half years into the campaign, nearly $34 million has been raised.
- The unveiling of a sparkling new Olympic sports weight room in Fitzgerald Field House that greatly assists more than 300 student-athletes. Pitt also recently opened new training facilities for gymnastics and wrestling.
- Pitt hosting, and participating in, its first-ever women's NCAA basketball tournament. Pitt's Petersen Events Center was the site of opening-round games in 2007. The Panthers stormed to 24 victories on the year and advanced to the NCAA's second round where it gave eventual national champ Tennessee one of its toughest challenges of the tournament.
- The design of a new, yet familiar, uniform look — a block-style "PITT" logo that serves as the primary mark for each of the Panthers' 19 varsity teams. The logo is a nod to Pitt's historic tradition that maintains a style focused squarely on the future.
- A partnership with adidas that puts Pitt in an elite and exclusive group of schools nationwide. Each of the Panthers' 19 intercollegiate sports teams wear adidas shoes, uniforms and apparel, making Pitt one of the finest outfitted programs in the country.
- On the communications front, Long partnered Pitt with ISP Sports, a national leader in the collegiate sports marketing industry. Owning exclusive multimedia rights to Pitt Athletics, ISP is elevating the Panthers' program from local and regional markets to the national level. The monthly publication "Panther Eyes" was spawned from the ISP association and provides entertaining and insightful information for Pitt followers everywhere.
- Pitt continues to carry a high profile in one of the nation's largest media markets because of its radio partnership with Clear Channel Communications. Now entering its fourth year, the agreement has Pitt football and basketball simulcast on 50,000-watt 3WS and Fox Sports Radio 970. With a consistently growing network of affiliates, the Panthers enjoy unprecedented radio coverage. Significant expansion to pre- and postgame coverage for these sports has been a hit with the Panther Nation. Moreover, women's basketball games are now carried by Fox Sports 970, the program's first-ever commercial flagship station.
- Also on the media front, Long helped initiate "Panthers Weekly," a popular television program produced by FSN Pittsburgh that shines the spotlight on Pitt's entire athletic scene.

In addition to his efforts at Pitt, Long is also very active on the Big East and national scene.

This past spring he was named to the Division I Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Group. Comprised of leading university and athletic administrators from across the country, the group is charged with developing strategies to enhance academic performance and graduation rates in Division I men's basketball.

Long has emerged as a lead athletic director voice for the Big East as it relates to the Bowl Championship Series. The Big East remains a valued member of the BCS and Pitt earned the conference's automatic berth in 2004, playing in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

He was appointed to serve as one of the Big East Conference's representatives on the 49-member NCAA Division I Management Council, which plays a vital role in legislative issues and oversees cabinets responsible for academic affairs, eligibility, compliance, championships and competition.

Long serves as a member of the Executive Committee of the Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association, an influential organization dedicated to the welfare and future success of student-athletes.

In 2004 he was appointed to the NCAA's Sports Wagering Task Force, a group formed after a national study commissioned by the NCAA revealed a disturbing frequency of sports wagering among student-athletes.

Long's accomplishments and high aspirations during his time at Pitt are not surprising considering his outstanding professional and personal pedigree. He is cut from the mold of winners and has worked in many of the country's highest-profile conferences, including the Big 12, Big Ten, Big East and Atlantic Coast Conference.

Prior to his Pitt appointment, Long served as the senior associate athletic director at the University of Oklahoma for two-and-a-half years. He oversaw all external affairs, including development, marketing/promotions, licensing, media relations, ticket operations, radio/television and SoonerVision productions. He additionally was the primary administrator for football and men's basketball and the sport supervisor for baseball, wrestling and men's and women's golf.

Prior to Oklahoma, Long was the athletic director at Eastern Kentucky University. He significantly improved Eastern Kentucky's athletic infrastructure during his two years with the completion of several facility projects and the formation of viable corporate partnerships and sponsorships.

Long also served a short tenure at Virginia Tech as associate athletic director prior to his Eastern Kentucky post. The majority of his career in collegiate athletic administration, though, was spent at the University of Michigan. Hired by legendary coach and athletic director Bo Schembechler, Long elevated through a number of administrative posts at Michigan before ultimately reaching associate athletic director.

Long has also held football coaching and administrative positions at Rice University, Duke University and North Carolina State University.

A 1982 graduate of Ohio Wesleyan with a bachelor's degree in economics, Long earned seven varsity letters in football and baseball. He received his master's degree in education from Miami University (Ohio) in 1983 after serving as a graduate assistant football coach.

A native of Kettering, Ohio, Long is married to the former Fanny Gellrich of Ann Arbor, Mich. The couple has two children, Stephanie (13) and Christina (8).

Big East Conference

PITT

The University

The 2006 BIG EAST Conference football season was one of the year's best stories. Each week seemed to bring with it memorable matchups and record-breaking feats. But it was the brilliant ending — a perfect 5-0 record in bowl games — that put the finishing touches on this BIG EAST best seller.

The league ended the 2006 regular season with a winning percentage of .800 in non-conference games (32-8 record) — the highest in the 16-year history of the conference. This mark included an 11-7 record against BCS Conference opponents. In addition, the final combined overall winning percentage of all BIG EAST football teams in '06 (.644) was the best of any Division I-A conference in the country.

Five of the eight BIG EAST teams went to bowl games and all five emerged victorious. The league captured wins in the FedEx Orange Bowl (Louisville), the Toyota Gator Bowl (West Virginia), the Texas Bowl (Rutgers), the PapaJohn's.com Bowl (USF) and the International Bowl (Cincinnati). The BIG EAST's 5-0 bowl mark was the best bowl record of any Division I-A conference in '06, earning the league ESPN's Bowl Challenge Cup. It was only the second time since the inception of the BCS that an automatic qualifying conference has gone undefeated in any one bowl season.

Three BIG EAST teams wound down the '06 campaign in the top 12 of the final Associated Press and USA Today Polls — Louisville (No. 6/7), West Virginia (No. 10/10) and Rutgers (No. 12/12).

In 2005, three new schools — the University of Cincinnati, University of Louisville and University of South Florida — joined Connecticut, Pittsburgh, Rutgers, Syracuse and West Virginia in the BIG EAST. The additions increased the football membership to eight schools and gave the BIG EAST a presence that ranged as far south as Tampa, Fla., and as far west as Louisville, Ky.

In the first season as the "new-look" BIG EAST in 2005, four conference schools earned trips to bowl games. West Virginia (11-1, 7-0 BIG EAST) finished the regular season unbeaten in league play for the first time since 1993 to win the conference title. Earning the BIG EAST's automatic Bowl Championship Series bid, West Virginia represented the conference in the 2006 Nokia Sugar Bowl in Atlanta. The Mountaineers defeated Georgia, 38-35, to finish the year fifth in the final Associated Press Top 25 Poll and sixth in the final USA Today Poll. Louisville was ranked 19th and 20th, respectively, in the final AP and USA Today polls.

Over the last six seasons, the BIG EAST has compiled one of the best winning percentages of any BCS conference in bowl games. BIG EAST Conference teams are 21-13 in postseason play since 2000.

The BIG EAST has been a frequent contender for the national championship. Eight times in the league's 16 seasons a BIG EAST squad has been in a bowl game, playing for a claim to the national crown.

The BIG EAST has always been proud of its football student-athletes for their academic achievements. In 2006, West Virginia senior linebacker Jay Henry was named the BIG EAST/Aeropostale Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Henry, along with Louisville junior quarterback Brian Brohm, also received ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA

Academic All-America First Team accolades. WVU senior center Dan Mozes earned second team recognition. In addition, Rutgers' senior fullback Brian Leonard was the recipient of the Draddy Trophy. Known in many circles as the "Academic" Heisman, the Draddy Trophy continues to be one of college football's most sought after and competitive awards, recognizing an individual as the absolute best in the country for his combined academic success, football performance and exemplary community leadership.

Since its birth, the BIG EAST has been a national power both on and off the field. Commissioner Michael Tranghese served as coordinator of the BCS for two years from 2002-03. He has spearheaded the development of BIG EAST football since its beginning.

The BIG EAST Conference's entrance into football was announced on February 5, 1991. The league gained instant notice and credibility with its level of excellence on the field and with its television and bowl relationships. The BIG EAST has been a charter member of each of the major bowl agreements with the major conferences, beginning with The Bowl Coalition in 1992 followed by The Bowl Alliance in '95. The Bowl Championship Series began in '98.

Extensive television exposure and the BIG EAST have been synonymous terms. For football, the league established its own regional television package in 1991 before it had played a game. The BIG EAST Television Network immediately was the largest regional college football network in the country.

The BIG EAST has television agreements with ABC and ESPN that run through the 2007 season. Both agreements ensure that ABC or ESPN telecasts a BIG EAST game virtually every week of the year. The BIG EAST and ESPN have already agreed on a new six-year contract that will further enhance the league's exposure. The new agreement will begin with the 2008 regular season and run through 2013.

Of the 73 games played this past season involving BIG EAST teams, 29 of them were seen on ABC, ESPN or ESPN2. In addition, 37 others were seen on either ESPN Regional, ESPNU, ESPN360, FSN, CSTV or the NFL Network.

ESPN Regional Television owns broadcasting rights for all telecasts not assigned to ABC or ESPN. ERT, which took over for the BIG EAST Network in 1996, produces and distributes additional games, including a BIG EAST Game of the Week, through syndication, local markets and pay-per-view.

The BIG EAST has always aligned itself with prestigious bowl games. The league is one of the original founders of the Bowl Championship Series and continues to be one of only six conferences that receive an automatic annual bid.

The BIG EAST Conference champion earns the league's automatic BCS bid. The BCS — which enters its ninth season in 2007-08 — is a five-game arrangement for postseason college football that is designed to match the two top-rated teams in a national championship game and to create exciting and competitive matchups between eight other highly regarded teams in four other BCS games.

If the BIG EAST champion finishes No. 1 or No. 2 in the final BCS standings, then that team will earn a spot in the BCS National Championship Game. Otherwise, the league champion will compete in one of the four remaining BCS bowl games — the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, FedEx Orange Bowl, Allstate Sugar Bowl or the Rose Bowl. Each bowl hosts two games once every four years — its traditional game plus a National Championship contest approximately one week later.

In a first-of-its-kind collaboration among Division I conferences and football bowl partners, the BIG EAST and Big 12 Conferences — along with Notre Dame — forged a bowl partnership beginning in '06. This agreement assures both BCS Conferences' and Notre Dame's participation in the Toyota Gator Bowl and Brut Sun Bowl over a four-year period. The Toyota Gator Bowl or Brut Sun Bowl will pick a BIG EAST team after the league's representative to the Bowl Championship Series has been determined. The Atlantic Coast Conference will provide the opposition in the Toyota Gator Bowl (CBS) and the Pac-10 Conference will participate in the Brut Sun Bowl (CBS).

The Toyota Gator Bowl has the first selection at the conclusion of each season. During the four years of the deal, the BIG EAST (or Notre Dame) will send a team to both the Gator Bowl and the Sun Bowl twice.

The Meineke Car Care Bowl is now in its sixth year with the BIG EAST Conference. The Meineke Car Care Bowl, which is played in Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte, N.C., picks after the Toyota Gator Bowl or Brut Sun Bowl.

In 2006, the BIG EAST entered into a four-year agreement to participate in the Texas Bowl versus an opponent from the Big 12 Conference. During the four-year agreement, the BIG EAST is guaranteed to play in the bowl game twice (2006 and 2008). The Texas Bowl is played at the state-of-the-art Reliant Stadium in Houston, Texas.

The BIG EAST Conference also aligned itself with two new bowls beginning last season — the International Bowl in Toronto, Ontario, and the PapaJohn's.com Bowl in Birmingham, Ala. The agreements give the BIG EAST a total of six bowl deals. In the International Bowl, the BIG EAST faces a team from the Mid-American Conference. In the PapaJohn's.com Bowl, the BIG EAST plays a team from Conference USA.

DR. FREDDIE FU

Dr. Freddie H. Fu begins his 21st year of service to the Pitt athletic program as head team physician and orthopaedic surgeon.

Freddie H. Fu, M.D., has been the chairman of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine and the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center (UPMC) since 1997, where he is the David Silver Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery.

Dr. Fu is known worldwide for his pioneering surgical techniques to treat sports-related injuries to the knee and shoulder and his extensive scientific and clinical research in the biomechanics of such injuries. Because of his reputation, Dr. Fu attracts both athletic and non-athletic patients from all over the globe.

He also was instrumental in the establishment of the Sports and Preventive Medicine Institute in 1985. Under Dr. Fu's medical directorship, the facility — now called the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine — has grown into one of the world's largest, most comprehensive and highly regarded sports medicine clinical and research centers. In 2000, this world-class center moved to its new home within the expansive, state-of-the-art UPMC Sports Performance Complex. The complex, partly designed by Dr. Fu, also houses the indoor and outdoor training facilities of the University of Pittsburgh Panthers and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Dr. Fu holds secondary appointments at the university as professor of physical therapy and health physical and recreational education at the University of Pittsburgh School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences. He also established the University of Pittsburgh's Sports Medicine Fellowship Program, which attracts physicians from all over the world to learn surgical techniques and conduct research with Dr. Fu and his colleagues in the department of orthopaedic surgery.

More than 70 professional awards and numerous major research grants garnered by Dr. Fu are the result of his efforts in clinical, basic scientific and biomechanical research concerning sports medicine and orthopaedic surgery. In 1996, the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) honored Dr. Fu with the President's Challenge Award for his tutelage in advancing the quality of health care related to sports medicine. In 2002, Dr. Fu became the sponsor of the annual NATA New Investigator Award, and he was named as one of three University of Pittsburgh Distinguished Alumni Fellows because of his "inspiration to countless students, athletes, colleagues and the broader community."

DR. DAVID STONE

David Stone begins his 16th season as a team physician for the University of Pittsburgh, and his seventh season with the football program. He graduated from New York University in 1976 and from New Jersey Medical School in 1980. After completing his residency in physical medicine and rehabilitation at Rusk Institute and sports medicine fellowship, he started a practice in New Jersey and was a medical consultant for the New York Giants for two years. Since joining the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery in 1990 he has also worked as an assistant company physician at Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre, and as team physician for Point Park University. Dr. Stone has published numerous research studies in major sports medicine and orthopaedic journals.

VONDA WRIGHT, M.D.

Vonda Wright, M.D., begins her first season as team physician for the University of Pittsburgh. She is an orthopaedic surgeon at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center (UPMC) who specializes in sports medicine and cartilage repair. Dr. Wright sees patients in the clinic at the UPMC Center for Sports Medicine, and performs surgery at UPMC Shadyside and UPMC South Side. One of few women in the field of orthopaedic surgery, she is assistant professor of orthopaedic surgery at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine.

With a research interest in aging athletes, Dr. Wright is the founder and director of UPMC's Performance and Research Initiative for Masters Athletes (PRIMA), a comprehensive clinical service and conditioning program for both elite and recreational athletes over the age of 40. She was the research coordinator for the 2005 Summer National Senior Games — The Senior Olympics, held in Pittsburgh. Since 2003, Dr. Wright has been looking at health research data related to Senior Olympians, with the hypothesis that athletes over age 40 who maintain high levels of functional capacity and quality of life throughout their life spans may be the best model of healthy aging, free from the variable of disuse. Such research findings may assist physicians in caring for older active adults more effectively.

Dr. Wright's research has been rewarded in the form of grants, numerous awards, peer-reviewed publications and international and national presentations. Her other research interests include muscle and tendon aging, gene therapy for the enhancement of bone healing, and osteoporosis in men.

She first came to Pitt in 1999 as an orthopaedic surgery resident. She had completed a research fellowship in Pitt's Musculoskeletal Growth & Development Lab under the direction of Johnny Huard, Ph.D., and was one of only 10 residents to participate in the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons Clinician Scientist Development Program. Following the 2005 Summer Games, Dr. Wright completed a one-year Sports Medicine and Upper Extremity Fellowship at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City.

She received her bachelor's degree in biology from Wheaton College, in Wheaton, Ill.; her master's degree in oncology nursing from Rush Presbyterian St. Luke's Medical Center in Chicago, and her medical degree from the Pritzker School of Medicine at the University of Chicago.

PITT SPORTS MEDICINE

More than 500 University of Pittsburgh student-athletes receive medical care provided by the University's athletic training program.

The University of Pittsburgh has a proud tradition of athletic training education. The undergraduate program is accredited by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA). Pittsburgh also provides graduate education at the master's and doctoral level.

Established in 1975, the athletic training program prepares students for a career in the multidisciplinary field of sports medicine. Upon completion of the athletic training education program, the student is eligible for the NATA administered certification examination.

Pittsburgh athletes receive treatment in two athletic training rooms. Each sport has a full-time certified athletic trainer or certified graduate assistant and student athletic trainers assigned to provide medical coverage during all practices and games. The staff is dedicated to providing all aspects of prevention, evaluation, management and rehabilitation of injuries and illnesses.

The sports medicine staff also runs a sports medicine clinic at the UPMC Sports Performance Complex for all athletes to be evaluated by one of the sports medicine physicians. The South Side structure, which includes the Center for Sports Medicine, an indoor practice facility, four grass practice fields, and the Sports Performance Complex combines the resources of a major academic and clinical system with professional and collegiate sport team programs. This clinic provides the athletes with an opportunity to be seen by specialists as well as providing the student athletic trainer with an outstanding learning environment.

The clinic is staffed by Dr. Freddie H. Fu and is assisted by orthopaedic surgeons Dr. Christopher Harner, co-head team physician; Dr. David Stone, associate team physician; assistant team physicians Dr. Mark Rodosky, Dr. Robin West and Dr. Vonda Wright; Dr. Tanya Hagen, neurosurgeon; Dr. Dade Lunsford, neurosurgeon; Mark Lovell, Ph.D. and Michael Collins, Ph.D., neuropsychologists and concussion specialists; five sports medicine fellows: Sam Robinson, Matthew Pombo, Alexis Colvin, Brian Forsythe, Marvin Lo; and primary care sports medicine fellows Thomas Sisk and Scott Wissink. In addition, a staff of consulting specialists is available at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center (UPMC) to assist in providing quality medical treatment for Pittsburgh student-athletes.
